

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. LONDON: W. GLOWES AND SONS, TYPE-SETTERS AND GENERAL PRINTERS, STAMFORD STREET, AND CHURCH LANE.

P R E F A C E.

In the following adaptation of Chants to the Canticles and Psalter, in order to consult all tastes, Three Series of Chants are provided.

1. Series No. I. consists of the Ancient Chants of the Church. These may be sung either in unison, with the short score as an organ accompaniment; or in harmony, the parts of which have been made as vocal as possible.

2. Series No. II. consists of Anglican Single Chants. In this Series, founded on the traditional use of Westminster, most of the older Chants were originally composed for the Psalms to which they are here affixed.

3. Series No. III. consists of Double Chants, including some few which may be considered somewhat florid, but are both popular and good of their kind.

4. To meet the requirement of a change of Chant where there is a change of subject, whether in the same Psalm or in two consecutive Psalms, each Series, where necessary, contains a succession of Chants, major or minor, adapted in key to follow each other.

5. Wherever a changeable Chant is employed for this purpose, the minor form—whether it be the one first used or not—is the one given, the signature of the major form being added at the end: but this change should be attempted only by skilled choirs.

6. In order to give the greatest variety in the least space, no Chant, except in the case of the first Series, has been inserted in the Psalter more than once. By this means a choice of two hundred and fifty old standard Chants is provided; to which fifty modern Chants, by living composers, are added in an Appendix.

7. With regard to the pointing of the words of the Psalms, so perplexing a variety has arisen from existing pointed Psalters having been arranged upon no definite principle, that it seemed advisable to recur to, at once, and to carry out, consistently and uniformly, the old and original principle laid down in the model verse given by Dr. Boyce. ('Cathedral Music,' Vol. I. p. 2).

O come let us sing un-|to the|Lord||let us heartily rejoice in the strength of|our sal-|va-|tion.

The fewest syllables possible, consistently with their correct accentuation, are given to the varied notes of the Chant; also it is observable, that the musical treatment of the word "salvation," is that which is usually adopted for it, and for other words of analogous form, in Services and Anthems, where the composer, unbiassed by conventionalism, follows his natural taste. Besides, the revival of this, the oldest form of adaptation of English words to the Anglican Chant (for it is the adaptation employed by Tallis) is the more desirable, as it corresponds so closely with their previous adaptation to the Ancient Chants, as to render the same printed arrangement of the Psalter equally available for both species.

In conclusion, it must be allowed that, as it has been most truly observed, "to point the Psalter for the purposes of chanting is an undertaking of extreme difficulty and delicacy. Not only is a thorough appreciation of the spirit and emphasis of the words among the necessary requirements, but, at the same time, a knowledge of the nature and accent of the Chants to be used is quite indispensable, as well as that familiarity with the best methods of setting words to music, which none but a practised musician possesses, and the most refined niceness of taste. . . . A quick and inconsiderate criticism is to be deprecated." *

Had it occurred to Dr. Elvey to return to the principle laid down by Dr. Boyce, little would have been left for succeeding Editors to accomplish.

* Preface to Dr. Stephen Elvey's Psalter.

ALPHABETICAL AND HISTORICAL INDEX.

EXPLANATION.

(') The acute accent is placed on the accented syllable to be sung to the first note of the Chant after the reciting note.

This accented syllable and those that follow are divided into three portions for the middle, and five for the close of the verse, for the corresponding notes, of which a Chant ordinarily consists.

To effect this with precision, the following marks are adopted—

- (-) The hyphen separates two syllables of one word, to be sung to different notes.
- (∪) The tie unites two syllables of different words, to be sung to one minim (or its equivalent).
- (∙ ∙) Two points indicate two minims (or their equivalent), to be sung to one syllable.
- (^) The circumflex accent marks the last syllable, of the words sung to the reciting note, which ought to be accented.

N.B. In those Chants where the reciting note is followed by an unaccented or passing note, if this note is to be assigned to a separate syllable or syllables, they are marked off from the preceding syllable or word by a point (∙); but if the last syllable sung to the reciting note bears the circumflex accent, this syllable will be sung to the reciting note and the unaccented note also.

Glory be to the Fâ ther,.....and to² the Son³ : and.....to¹ the Ho-ly² Ghost⁵ ;
As it was in the beginning, is nōw, and év - er shall be : wôrld - with - out end. Ä - men.

The marks pp, p, mf, f, ff in the margin are intended only approximately to indicate piano and forte, &c., but always to mark the transition of sense from one paragraph to another, and therefore a suitable occasion for a change of stop on the organ.

With the same view (viz., to mark the transitions of sense), 2d Pt. is intended to show where, if a double Chant be used, the second part of it should be employed, out of its natural order.

The first bar in the series No. I. is to be used only to the first verse of the Psalms ; but may be used to every verse of the Canticles on Sundays and Festivals.

In those Chants in series No. I., where two double bars occur in the middle of the Chant, the first is to be used when more than one syllable is assigned to the last bar, and the second when only one syllable is assigned to it.

The minims with united stems, while they show the notes that are to be sung to the same syllable, indicate a slight acceleration of time upon the strict minim.

It should be borne in mind that, as chanting is only musical declamation, strictness of time should always give way to the proper, deliberate accentuation and punctuation of the words ; especially where three syllables (though short and unaccented) are assigned to one note (Ps. vii, v. 14, Ps. xxvii, v. 15.) Even the commas should be observed, and at all other stops the breath taken also, as in reading. The bars, in fact, are employed more to indicate the correct accent of the notes, and to facilitate the adaptation to the words, than to mark a rigorous exactitude of time.

Cheerful Psalms should be chanted more briskly than those which are Penitential.

VENITE, EXULTEMUS DOMINO. Psal. xcv.

f O'COME, let us sing ún-to the Lord: let us heartily rejoice in the strength of our sal-vä-tion.

Let us come before his présence with thanks-giving: and shew oursêlves glád in him with Psalms.

For the Lórd is a gréat God: and a gréat Kíng above áll gods.

In his hand are all the córners of the earth: and the strength of the hîlls is hîs ál-so.

2d Pt. The sea is hîs, and hê made-it: and his hânds prepar-ed the dry land.

mf O come, let us wórsnip, and fáll down: and kneel before the Lórd our Mä-ker.

For hê is the Lórd our God: and we are the people of his pasture,* and the shêep of his hand.

To day if ye will hear his voice, hârden p not your hearts: as in the provocation, and as in the day of temptâtion ín the wil-derness;

When your fâthers témp-t-ed me: prøved mé, and saw my works.

Fórtý years long was I gríevéd with thîs generá-tion, and said: It is a people that do err in their hêarts, for they háve not known my ways.

Unto wóm I swáre in my wráth: that they shóuld not én-ter into my rest.

Glory be to the Fâther, and to the ff Son: and to the Ho-ly Ghost;

As it was in the beginning, is nów, and év-er shall-be: wórd without end. Á-men.

EASTER DAY.

¶ At Morning Prayer, instead of the Psalm, O come, let us sing, &c., these Anthems shall be sung or said.

f CHRIST our passover is sacrific-ed for-us: thêrefore lét us keep the feast; mf Not with the'old leaven, nor with the léaven of má-líce-and wickedness: but with the unleavened brêad of síncé-ri-ty and truth. [1 Cor. v. 7.]

f CHRIST being'raised from the déad dî-eth-no more: death hath no mðre domín-ion o-ver him.

p For in'that he died, he dîed unto sîn once: but in that he líveth, he lív-eth un-to God.

Like-wisereckon ye also yourselves to be déad índéed unto sîn: but alive unto Gôd through Jê-sus Christ our Lord. [Rom. vi. 9.]

CHRIST is'risen from the déad: and f becòme the frst-fruits-of them that slept.

Fôr'sínce by mán came death: by man p came álsò the resurrêc-tion of the déad.

Fôr'as in Ádam éll die: even so in Christ shall áll be made a-live. [1 Cor. xv. 20.]

Glo-ry'be to the Fâther, ánd to-the ff
Son: ánd to the Ho-ly Ghost;

As it'was in the beginning, is nów, and év-er shall-be: wôrld without end.

DEUS MISEREATUR. Psalm lxvii.

mf GOD be merciful unto us, and bless us: and shew us the light of his countenance, and be merciful unto us:

That thy way may be known upon earth: thy saving health among all nations.

f Let the people praise thee, O God: yea, let all the people praise thee.

O let the nations rejoice and be glad: for thou shalt judge the folk righteously, and govern the nations upon earth.

Let the people praise thee, O God: yea, let all the people praise thee.

Then shall the earth bring forth her increase: and God, even our own God, shall give us his blessing.

God shall bless us: and all the ends of the world shall fear him.

Glorify be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

QUICUNQUE VULT.

f WHO-SO'EVER will be saved : before all things it is necessary that he hold the Cath-olic Faith.

Which Faith except every one do keep whole and un-de-fled : without doubt he shall pe-rish év-er-last-ing-ly.

mf And the C^otholick F^aith is this : That we worship one God in Trⁱnity, and Trⁱn-ity-in U-ni-ty.

N^either confound-ing-the Persons : nôr di-vid-ing-the S^ub-stance.

For there is one Person of the Father, another of the Son : and another of the Ho-ly Ghôst.

But the Godhead of the Father, of the Son, and of the Holy Ghôst, is all one : the Glory equal, the M^ajesty c^oe-t^er-nal.

S^uch as the Father is, s^uch is the Son : and s^uch is the Ho-ly Ghôst.

The Father uncre^ate, the S^on uncre-ate : and the H^oly Ghôst un-cre-ate.

The Father incompre-hensible, the S^on inc^om-pre-hensible : and the Holy Ghôst in-c^om-pre-h^en-sible.

The Father e^ternal, the S^on e-ternal : and the H^oly Ghôst e-^ter-nal.

f And yet they are not thr^ee e-ternals : b^ut ône e-^ter-nal.

As also there are not three incompre-hensibles, nor thr^ee un-cre-ated : but one uncre-ated, and ône in-c^om-pre-h^en-sible.

mf So likewise the Father is Almⁱghty, the S^on Al-mighty : and the H^oly Ghôst Al-migh-ty.

And yet they are not thr^ee Al-mighties : b^ut ône Al-migh-ty.

So the Father is G^od, the S^on is God : and the H^oly Ghôst is God.

And yet they are not thr^ee Gods : b^ut ône God.

So likewise the Father is L^ord, the S^on mf Lord : and the H^oly Ghôst Lord.

And yet not thr^ee Lords : b^ut ône f Lord.

For like as we are comp^elled by the mf Chris-tian verity : to acknowledge every Person by hims^elf : to be G^od and Lord ;

So are we forbⁱdden by the C^otholick Re-ligion : to say, There be thr^ee G^ods, or thr^ee Lords.

The F^ather is made of none : neither cre^a-ted, nôr be-g^ot-ten.

The S^on is of the F^a-ther-a-lone : not made, nor cre^at-ed, b^ut be-g^ot-ten.

The Holy Ghôst is of the F^ather and of the Son : neither made, nor created, nor beg^ot-ten, b^ut pro-c^eed-ing.

So there is one Father, not three f Fathers ; one S^on, not thr^ee Sons : one Holy Ghôst, not thr^ee Ho-ly Ghosts.

And in this Trinity none is a^fore, or mf a^fter other : none is gr^eater, or less than-a-n^oth-er ;

But the whole three Persons are c^o-e^ter-nal-to-g^ether : and c^o-e^t-qual.

So that in all things, as is a-foresaid :

AT MORNING PRAYER.

the Unity in Trinity, and the Trinity in Unity is to be worshipped.

f He therefore that will be saved : must thus think of the Trinity.

mf Furthermore, it is necessary to everlasting salvation : that he also believe rightly the Incarnation of our Lord Jesus Christ.

For the right Faith is, that we believe and confess : that our Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of God, is God and Man ;

God, of the Substance of the Father, begotten before the worlds : and Man, of the Substance of his Mother, born in the world ;

Perfect God, and perfect Man : of a reasonable soul and human flesh subsisting ;

Equal to the Father, as touching his Godhead : and inferior to the Father, as touching his Manhood.

Who although he be God and Man : yet he is not two, but one Christ ;

One ; not by conversion of the Godhead into flesh ; but by taking of the Manhood into God ;

One altogether ; not by confusion of Substance : but by unity of Person.

For as the reasonable soul and flesh is one man : so God and Man is one Christ ;

Who suffered for our salvation : descended into hell, rose again the third day from the dead.

He ascended into heaven, he sitteth on the right hand of the Father, God Almighty : from whence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

At whose coming all men shall rise again with their bodies : and shall give account for their own works.

And they that have done good shall go into life everlasting : and they that have done evil into everlasting fire.

This is the Catholic Faith : which except a man believe faithfully he cannot be saved.

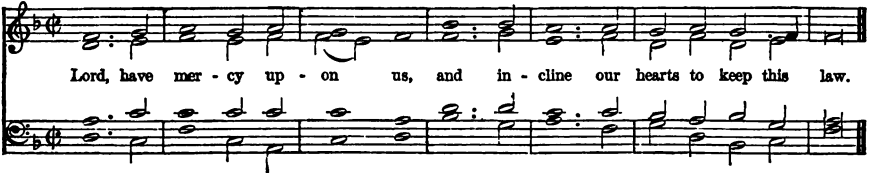

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son : and to the Holy Ghost ;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be : world without end. Amen.

PSALM i. Beatus vir, qui non abiit, &c.

mf BLESS-ED¹ is the man that hath not walked in the counsel of the ungodly, nor stood in the way of sinners : and hath not sāt in the seat of the scōrn-ful.

2 But his delight is in the lāv of the Lord : and in his law will he exercise himself day and night.

3 And he shall be like a tree planted by the wā-ter-side : that will bring forth his fruit in due sēa-son.

4 His lēaf also shāll not wither : and look, whatsoever he dōeth, it shall prōs-per.

f 5 As for the ungodly, it is not so with them : but they are like the chaff, which the wind scattereth away from the face of the earth.

6 Therefore the ungodly shall not be able to stand in the judgment : neither the sinners in the congregātion of the right-eous.

7 But the Lord knoweth the way of the righteous : and the way of the ungodly shall pē-rish.

PSALM ii. Quare fremuerunt gentes ?

f WHY do the heathen so furiously rage to-gether : and why do the people imā-gine a vain thing ?

2 The kings of the earth stand up, and the rulers take coun-sel-to-gether : against the Lōrd, and against his Anointed.

3 Let us break their bōuds a-sunder : and cast away their cōrds frōm us.

4 He that dwelleth in heaven shall laugh them to scorn : the Lord shall have them in de-ri-sion.

5 Then shall he speak unto them in his wrath : and vex them in his sore dis-plēa-sure.

6 Yēt have I sēt my King : upon my hōly hīll of Si-on.

7 I will preach the law, whereof the p Lōrd hath said unto me : Thou art my Son, this dāy have I be-got-ten thee.

8 Desire of me, and I shall give thee the heathen for thine in-heritance : and the utmost parts of the eārth for thy pos-sēs-sion.

9 Thou shalt brūise them with a rōd of iron : and break them in pieces like a pōt-ter's vēs-sel.

10 Be wise now therefore, O ye kings : be mf learned, yē that are jūdg-es of the earth.

11 Sērve the Lōrd in fear : and rejoice unto hīm with rēver-ence.

12 Kiss the Son, lest he be angry, and so ye pē-rish from the right way : if his wrath be kindled, (yea, but a little,) blessed are all they that put their trust in him.

PSALM iii. Domine, quid multiplicati ?

LORD, how are they increased that trouble me : many are they that rise against me.

2 Many one there be that say of my soul : There is no help for him in his God.

mf 3 But thou, O Lord, art my defender : thou art my worship, and the lift'er up of my head.

4 I did call upon the Lord with my voice : and he heard me out of his holy hill.

5 I laid me down and slept, and rose up again : for the Lord sustained me.

6 I will not be afraid for ten thousands of the people : that have set themselves against me round about.

f 7 Up, Lord, and help me, O my God : for thou smitest all mine enemies upon the cheek-bone ; thou hast broken the teeth of the ungodly.

mf 8 Salvation belongeth unto the Lord : and thy blessing is upon thy people.

PSALM iv. Cum invocarem.

p HEAR me when I call, O God of my righteousness : thou hast set me at liberty when I was in trouble ; have mercy upon me, and hearken unto my prayer.

mf 2 O ye sons of men, how long will ye blaspheme mine honour : and have such pleasure in vanity, and seek after leasing ?

3 Know this also, that the Lord hath chosen to himself the man that is godly : when I call upon the Lord, he will hear me.

4 Stand in awe, and sin not : commune with your own heart, and in your chamber, and be still.

2d Pt. 5 Offer the sacrifice of righteousness : and put your trust in the Lord.

6 There be many that say : Who will show us a-ny good ?

7 Lord, lift thou up : the light of thy countenance upon us.

8 Thou hast put gladness in my heart : since the time that their corn, and wine, and oil, increased.

9 I will lay me down in peace, and take my rest : for it is thou, Lord, only, that makest me dwell in safety.

PSALM v. Verba mea auribus.

PONDER my words, O Lord : my constant meditation.

2 O hearken thou unto the voice of my calling, my King, and my God : for thou to thee will I make my prayer.

3 My voice shalt thou hear betimes, O Lord : early in the morning will I direct my prayer unto thee, and will look up.

4 For thou art the God that hast no pleasure in wickedness : neither shall a-ny evil dwell with thee.

5 Such as be foolish shall not stand in thy sight : for thou hatest all them that work vanity.

6 Thou shalt destroy them that speak leasing : the Lord will abhor both the bloodthirsty and deceitful man.

7 But as for me, I will come into thine house, even upon the multitude of thy mercy : and in thy fear will I worship toward thy holy temple.

8 Lead me, O Lord, in thy righteousness, because of mine enemies : make thy way plain before my face.

9 For there is no faithfulness in his mouth : their inward parts are vanity [10 Their wickedness.

No. I. 2.

No. II. 2.

No. III. 2.

10 Their thro'at is an open sepulchre :
they flatter with their tongue.

f 11 Destroy thou them, O God ; let them perish through their own imaginations :
cast them out in the multitude of their ungodliness ; for they have rebelled against thee.

p 12 And let all them that put their trust in thee rejoice : they shall ever be giving of thanks, because thou defendest them ; they that love thy Name shall be joyful in thee ;

13 For thou, Lord, wilt give thy blessing unto the righteous : and with thy favourable kindness wilt thou defend him as with a shield.

PSALM vi. Domine, ne in furore.

mf O LORD, rebuke me not in thine indignation : neither chasten me in thy displeasure.

2 Have mercy upon me, O Lord, for I am weak : O Lord, heal me, for my bones are vexed.

3 My soul also is sore troubled : but,
Lord, how long wilt thou punish me ?

4 Turn thee, O Lord, and deliver my soul : O save me for thy mercy's sake.

5 For in death no man remembereth thee : and who will give thee thanks in the pit ?

6 I am weary of my groaning ; every night wash I my bed : and water my couch with my tears.

7 My beauty is gone for very trouble :
and worn away because of all mine enemies.

8 Away from me, all ye that work vanity : for the Lord hath heard the voice of my weeping.

9 The Lord hath heard my petition :
the Lord will receive my prayer.

10 All mine enemies shall be confounded, and sore vexed : they shall be turned back, and put to shame suddenly.

PSALM vii. Domine, Deus meus.

mf O LORD my God, in thêe have I put my trust : save me from all them that pèrsecute me, and de-liv-er-me ;

2 Lest he devour my soul, like a lion, and téar it-in pieces : whîle there-is nône to-help.

p 3 O Lord my God, if I have done any stúch thing : or if there be any wick-edness in my hands ;

4 If I have rewarded evil unto hîm that dealt friend-ly with-me : yea, I have delivered him that without any cause is-mine ên-emy ;

mf 5 Then let mine enemy pèrsecute my soul, and take-me : yea, let him tread my life down upon the earth, and lây mine hôn-our in the dust.

f 6 Stand up, O Lord, in thy wrath, and lift up thyself, because of the indignâtion of mine enemies : arise up for me in the jûdgment that thóu hast command-ed.

7 And so shall the congregation of the pèople còme a-bout-thee : for their sakes therefore lift up thy-sêlf again.

8 The Lord shall judge the people ; give sêntence with me, O Lord : according to my righteousness, and according to the innocency that is in me.

9 O let the wickedness of the ungodly còme to-an end ; bût guide thou the just.

10 Fòr the right-eous God : trîeth the vé-ry hearts and reins.

11 My hêlp còm-eth-of God : who p presêrveth thém that-are trîe of-heart.

12 God is a righteous Jûdge, stróng, and patient : and Gôd is provok-ed eve-ry day.

13 If a man will not tûrn, he will whét his sword : he hath bent his bôw, and made it rêa-dy.

14 He hath prepared fòr him the ín-struments-of death : he ordaineth his árrows against the per-secu-tors.

15 Behold, he trávailèth with mischief : f he hath conceived sorrow, and brougth fòrth un-gôd-liness.

16 He hath graven and digged úp a pit : and is fallen himself into the destrúction that he máde for ô-ther.

17 Fòr his travail shall còme upon his ówn head : and his wickedness shall fall on-his ówn pate.

f O LORD our Governour, how excellent is thy Náme in áll the world : thou that hast sêt thy gló-ry abòve the-heavens !

2 Out of the mouth of very babes and sucklings hast thou ordained strength, because of-thine enemies : that thou mightest still the ênemy, and the avêng-er.

mf 3 For I will consider thy heavens, êven the wòrks of thy fingers : the moon and the stârs, which thóu hast ordain-ed.

4 What is mân, that thou art mînd-ful of-him : and the sôn of man, that thou vi-sitest him ?

5 Thou madest him lôwer thán the angels : to cròwn him with gló-ry-and wòr-ship.

6 Thou makest him to have dominion of the wòrks of-thy hands : and thou hast put áll things in subjec-tion under his feet ;

7 All shêep and oxen : yêa, and the bêasts of the field ;

f I WILL 'give thanks unto thee, O Lord, with my whole heart : I will speak of all thy marvellous works.

2 I will be glâd and rejoice in thee : yea, my songs will I make of thy Nâme, O thou most High-est.

mf 3 While mine enemies are drî-ven back : they shall fall and pèrish at thy prè-sence.

4 For thou hast maintâined my rîght and my cause thou art sèt in the thrône that judg-est rîght.

5 Thou hast rebuked the hêathen, and destroy'd the un-godly : thou hast put out their nâme for è-ver and è-ver.

6 O thou enemy, destructions are come to a perpèt-ual end : even as the cities which thou hast destroyed ; their memòrial is pè-rished with them.

7 But the Lòrd shall endure for ever : he hath also prepared his sèat for judg-ment.

8 For he shall jûdge the wòrld in rîghteousness : and minister true judg-ment ún-to the pèo-ple.

9 The Lord also will be a defènce for the op-pressed : even a refuge in dûe tíme of tróu-ble.

10 And they that know thy Name will pút their trúst in thee : for thou, Lord, hast never fáiled them that sèek thee.

11 O praise the Lòrd which dwèll-eth in f Sion : shèw the pèople óf his dō-ings.

12 For, when he maketh inquisition for blòod, he remém-bereth them : and forgètteth nót the com-plâint of the pòor.

14 That I may shew all thy praises mf within the pòrts of the daugh-ter of Sion : I will rejoice in thy sal-vâ-tion.

15 The heathen are sunk dōwn in the pít that they made : in the same net which they hid prîvily, is their foot tã-ken.

16 The Lord is knòwn to ex-ecute judgment : the ungodly is trãpped in the wòrk of his òwn hands.

17 The wicked shall be túrned ín-to hell : and àll the pèople that for-gét God.

18 For the pòor shall nót àlway bé for-gotten : the patient abiding of the mèek shall nót pè-rish for è-ver.

19 Úp, Lord, and let nót mán have the úp-per hand : let the hêathen be judg-ed in thy sight.

PSALM X. Ut quid, Domine?

my WHY standest thou so fâr öff, O Lord :
and hidest thy face in the nêedful tîme of tröu-ble ?

2 The ungodly for his own lûst doth pêr-secute the poor : let them be taken in the crafty wîllness that they have-i-ma-gin-ed.

3 For the ungodly hath made boast of his öwn hêart's de-sîre : and speaketh good of the cövetous, whom Gód ab-hör-reth.

4 The ungodly is so proud, that he câreth nót for God : nêither is Gód in all

5 His wâys are ál-way grievous : thy are mñished from 'a-móng the chil-dren-of men.

2 They talk of vanity êvery one with

3 The Lord looked down from héaven upon the chîl-dren-of men : to see if there were any that would understand, and sêek af-ter God.

4 But they are all gone out of the way, they are alto-gether be-cö-mi-nable : there is none that dö-eth good, no not one.

5 Their throat is an open sepulchre, with their tóngues háve they-de-ceived : the póison-of äsps is under their lips.

6 Their möuth is full of curs-ing-and bitterness : their fêet-are swift to shêd blood.

7 Destruction and unhappiness is in their ways, and the way of péace háve they-not known : there is no féar-of Göd be-fore their eyes.

8 Have they no knowledge, that they p are äll such work-ers-of mischief : eating up my people as it were brêad, and cáll not upon the-Lörd ?

PSALM XVI. Conserva me Domine.

p PRESERVE me, Ó God : for in thee have-I put my trust.

2 O my soul, thou hast said ún-to-the Lord : Thou art my God, my goods are no-thing ún-to thee.

3 All my delight is upon the sáints, that are in the earth : and upon súch as excéll in vir-tue.

4 But they that run áfter anó-ther god : sháll have gréat tróu-ble.

5 Their drink offerings of blood wíll I-not offer : neither make méntion of their námes with-in my lips.

6 The Lord himself is the portion of mine inheritance, ánd óf my cup : thóu shalt maintain my lot.

7 The lot is fallen unto mé in a faír ground : yéa, I have a good-ly he-ri-tage.

8 I will thank the Lord for giv-ing-me warning : my reins also chástén me in the night-séa-son.

9 I have set Gód ál-ways-be-fore-me : for he is on my right hand, thére-fore-I shall not fall.

10 Wherefore my heart was glád, and my gló-ry-re-joiced : my flesh ál-so shall rest in hope.

11 For why ? thou shalt not léave my sóul in hell : neither shalt thou suffer thy Hóly One to see cor-rúp-tion.

2 Let my sêntence come sôrth from thy presence : and let thine eyes lôok upon the thîng that is è-qual.

3 Thou hast proved and visited mine heart in the night-season ; thou hast tried me, and shalt find no wick-edness in me : for I am utterly pûrposed that my mûth shall not of-fend.

4 Because of men's works, that are done against the wôrds of thy lips : I have kept me from the wâys of the destrôy-er.

d Pt. 5 O hold thou up my goings in thy paths : thât my fôot-steps slip not.

p 6 I have called upon thee, O Gôd, for thou shalt hear me : incline thine ear to me, and heark-en unto my wôrds.

7 Shew thy marvellous loving-kindness, thou that art the Saviour of thém which put their trust in thee : from such as resist thy right hand.

8 Keep me as the apple of an eye : hide me under the shâ-dow of thy wings, 9 From the ungodly that trôu-ble me : mine enemies compass me round about to take a-way my soul.

10 They are inclosed in their own fat : and their mûth speak-eth prôud thîngs.

11 They lie waiting in our wây on every side : tûrning their eyes down to the ground ;

12 Like as a lion that is grêedy of 2d Pt. his prey : and as it were a lion's whelp, lûrking in sê-cret plâ-ces.

13 Up, Lord, disappoint him, and cast f him down : deliver my soul from the ungodly, which is a sword of thine ;

14 From the men of thy hand, O Lord, from the men, I sây, and from the è-vil world : which have their portion in this life, whose bellies thou fillest with thy hîd trêa-sure.

15 They have children at their de-sire : and leave the rêst of their sùb-stance for their babes.

2 I will call upon the Lord, which is worthy to be praised : so shall I be safe from mine enemies.

3 The sorrows of death compassed me : and the overflowings of ungodliness made me afraid.

p 4 The pains of hell came about me : the snares of death overtook me.

5 In my trouble I will call upon the Lord : and complain unto my God.

mf 6 So shall he hear my voice out of his holy temple : and my complaint shall come before him, it shall enter even into his ears.

f 7 The earth trembled and quaked : the very foundations also of the hills shook, and were removed, because he was wroth.

8 There went a smoke out of his presence : and a consuming fire out of his mouth, so that coals were kindled at it.

9 He bowed the heavens also, and came down : and it was dark under his feet.

10 He rode upon the cherubims, and did fly : he came flying upon the wings of the wind.

11 He made darkness his secret place : his pavilion round about him with dark water, and thick clouds to cover him.

12 At the brightness of his presence his clouds removed : hailstones, and coals of fire.

13 The Lord also thundered out of heaven, and the Highest gave his thunder : hailstones, and coals of fire.

14 He sent out his arrows, and scattered them : he cast forth lightnings, and destroyed them.

15 The springs of waters were seen, and the foundations of the round world were discovered, at thy chiding, O Lord : at the blasting of the breath of thy displeasure.

mf 16 He shall send down from on high to fetch me : and shall take me out of many waters.

17 He shall deliver me from my strongest enemy, and from them which hate me : for they are too mighty for me.

18 They prevented me in the day of my trouble : but the Lord was my upholder.

19 He brought me forth also into a place of liberty : he brought me forth, even because he had a favour unto me.

20 The Lord shall reward me after my righteous dealing : according to the cleanness of my hands shall he recompense me.

21 Because I have kept the ways of the Lord : and have not forsaken my God, as the wicked doth.

22 For I have an eye unto all his laws : and will not cast out his commandments from me.

23 I was also uncorrupt before him : and eschewed mine own wickedness.

24 Therefore shall the Lord reward me

After my right-eous dealing : and according unto the cleanness of my hands in his eye-sight.

p 25 With the hōly thōu shalt-be hōly : and with a pēfect man thou shalt be pēfect.

26 With the clēan thōu shalt-be clean : and with the frōward thou shalt learn frō-wardness.

27 For thou shalt save the pēople that are in ad-versity : and shalt bring down the hīgh lōoks of the-proud.

28 Thou also shalt light my candle : the Lord my God shall make my dark-ness to be light.

29 For in thee I shall discōmit an hōst of men : and with the help of my Gōd I shall leap o-ver the-wall.

33 He maketh my fēt like hārts' feet : and setteth me up on high.

34 He teacheth mine hānds to fight : and mine arms shall brēak ēven a bow of steel.

35 Thou hast given me the defēnce of thy sal-vation : thy right hand also shall hold me up, and thy lōving corrēction shall make me great.

36 Thou shalt make room enough under me fōr to go : thāt my fōot-steps shall nōt slide.

37 I will follow upon mine ēnemies, and o-ver-take them : neither will I turn agāin till I hāve de-stry-ed them.

38 I will smite them, that they shall nōt be ā-ble to stand : būt fall under my feet.

39 Thou hast girded me with strength un-to the battle : thou shalt thrōw down mine ēnemies un-der me.

40 Thou hast made mine enemies also to turn their bācks up-on-me : and I shall destrōy them that hāte me.

41 They shall cry, but thēre shall be nōne to help them : yea, even unto the Lord shall they cry, but he shall nōt hēar them.

42 I will beat them as small as the dūst before the wind : I will cāst them out as the clay in the streets.

43 Thou shalt deliver me from the strivings of the pēople : and thou shalt make me the hēad of the hēa-then.

44 A pēople whom I hāve not known : shall sērve me.

45 As soon as they hēar of me, thy shall o-bey-me : but the strange childrēn shall dissem-ble with me.

46 The strange chil-drēn shall fail : and be afrāid out of their pri-sons.

4 He asked life of thee, and thou gavest him a long life : even for ever-and-ever.

5 His honour is great in thy sal-va-tion : glory and great worship shalt thou lay up-on him.

6 For thou shalt give him everlasting-fulness : and make him glad with the joy of thy coun-te-nance.

7 And why ? because the King putteth his trust in the Lord : and in the mercy of the most Highest he shall not miscar-ry.

8 All thine enemies shall feel thy hand : thy right hand shall find out them that hate thee.

9 Thou shalt make them like a fiery oven in time of thy wrath : the Lord shall destroy them in his displeasure, and the fire shall consume them.

10 Their fruit shalt thou root out of the earth : and their seed from among the chil-dren-of men.

11 For they intended mis-chief-against thee : and imagined such a device as they are not able to-per-form.

3 Though an host of men were laid against me, yet shall nôt my heart be-a-fraid : and though there rose up war

4 One thing have I desired of the Lord, whích I will re-quire : even that I may dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life, to behold the fair beauty of the Lôrd, and to vi-sit his tē-ple.

5 For in the time of trouble he shall híde me in his tá-ber-nacle : yea, in the secret place of his dwelling shall he hide me, and set me úp ón a rock of stone,

6 And now shall he líft úp mine head :
above mine ênemies roun-d a-bôut me.

7 Therefore will I offer in his dwelling an oblati-on with gréat gladness : I will sing, and speak prais-es un-to the Lord.

p 8 Hearken unto my voice, O Lôrd,

2 Hear the voice of my humble petitions, when I cry unto thee : when I hold up my hands towards the mercy seat of thy hó-ly tē-mp-le.

3 O pluck me not away, neither destroy me with the ungodly and wick-ed doers : which speak friendly to their neighbours, but imā-gine mis-chief in their hearts.

4 Reward them according to their deeds : and according to the wickedness of their ówn in-ven-tions.

5 Recompense them after the work of their hands : pay them that they have de-serv-ed.

6 For they regard not in their mind the works of the Lord, nor the operation of his hands : therefore shall he break them down, and not build them up.

7 Praise-d be the Lord : for he hath heard the voice of my hum-ble peti-tions.

8 The Lord is my strength, and my shield ; my heart hath trusted in him, and I am helped : therefore my heart danceth for joy, and in my song will I praise him.

4 It is the Lord, that ruleth the sea ; the voice of the Lord is mighty in ó-pe-ration : the voice of the Lōrd is a glo-rious voice.

p 2 O Lord my Gôd, I cried unto thee : and thou hast heal-ed me.
 3 Thou, Lord, hast brought my soul out-of hell : thou hast kept my life from them that go down to the pit.
f 4 Sing praises unto the Lôrd, O ye saints of his : and give thanks unto him for a remembrance of his hô-liness.
 5 For his wrath endureth but the twinkling of an eye, and in his plea-sure is life : heaviness may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morn-ing.
 6 And in my prosperity I said, I shall nêver be re-moved : thou, Lord, of thy goodness hast made my hill so strong.

 7 Thou didst turn thy face from me : p and I was trou-bled.
 8 Then cried I unto thee, O Lord : and and gât me to my Lôrd right hum-bly.
 9 What profit is there in my blood : when I go down to the pit ?
 10 Shall the dust give thanks unto thee : or shall it de-clare thy truth ?
 11 Hear, O Lôrd, and have mër-cy-up-on-me : Lôrd, be thou my help-er.

5 Draw me out of the net, that they have laid privily for me : for thou art my strength.

6 Into thy hands I commend my spirit : for thou hast redeemed me, O Lord, thou God of truth.

7 I have hated them that hold of superstitious vanities : and my trust hath been in the Lord.

8 I will be glad, and rejoice in thy mercy : for thou hast considered my trouble, and hast known my soul in adversities.

2d Pt. 9 Thou hast not shut me up into the hand of the enemy : but hast set my feet in a large room.

10 Have mercy upon me, O Lord, for I am in trouble : and mine eye is consumed for very heaviness ; yea, my soul and my body.

11 For my life is waxen old with heaviness : and my years with mourning.

12 My strength faileth me, because of mine iniquity : and my bones are consumed.

13 I became a reproof among all mine enemies, but especially among my neighbours : and they of mine acquaintance were afraid of me ; and they that did see me without conveyed themselves from me.

14 I am clean forgotten, as a dead man out of mind : I am become like a broken vessel.

15 For I have heard the blasphemy of the multitude : and fear is on every side, while they conspire together against me, and take their counsel to take away my life.

16 But my hope hath been in thee, O Lord : I have said, Thou art my God.

17 My time is in thy hand ; deliver me from the hand of mine enemies : and from them that persecute me.

18 Shew thy servant the light of thy countenance : and save me for thy mercy's sake.

19 Let me not be confounded, O Lord, for I have called upon thee : let the ungodly be put to confusion, and be put to silence in the grave.

20 Let the lying lips be put to silence : 2d Pt. which cruelly, disdainfully, and spitefully, speak against the righteous.

21 O how plentiful is thy goodness, mf which thou hast laid up for them that fear thee : and that thou hast prepared for them that put their trust in thee, even before the sons of men !

22 Thou shalt hide them privily by thine own presence from the provoking of all men : thou shalt keep them secretly in thy tabernacle from the strife of tongues.

23 Thanks be to the Lord : for he hath shewed me marvellous great kindness in a strong city.

24 And when I made haste, I said : I am cast out of the sight of thine eyes.

25 Nevertheless, thou heardest the voice 2d Pt. of my prayer : when I cried unto thee.

5 I will acknowledge my sin unto thee : and mine unrighteousness have I not hid.

6 I said, I will confess my sins unto the Lord : and so thou forgavest the wickedness of my sin.

7 For this shall every one that is godly make his prayer unto thee, in a time when

3 Put thou thy trust in the Lord, and be doing good : dwell in the land, and verily thou shalt be fed.

4 Delight thou in the Lord : and he shall give thee thy heart's desire.

5 Commit thy way unto the Lord, and put thy trust in him : and he shall bring it to pass.

6 He shall make thy righteousness as clear as the light : and thy just dealing as the noon-day.

8 Leave off from wrath, and let go displeasure : fret not thyself, else shalt thou be mov'd to do evil.

9 Wicked doers shall be root-ed out : and they that patiently abide the Lord, those shall inherit the land.

10 Yet a little while, and the ungodly shall be clean gone : thou shalt look after his place, and he shall be a-way.

11 But the meek-spirited shall possess the earth : and shall be refreshed in the multitude of peace.

12 The ungodly seeketh counsel against the just : and gnasheth upon him with his teeth.

20 As for the ungodly, they shall perish ; and the enemies of the Lord shall consume as the fat of lambs : yea, even as the smoke, shall they consume away.*

22 Such as are blessed of God shall possess the land : and they that are cursed of him shall be rooted out.

p 23 The Lord ordereth a good man's going : and maketh his way acceptable to himself.

24 Though he fall, he shall not be cast away : for the Lord upholdeth him with his hand.

25 I have been young, and now am old : and yet saw I never the righteous forsaken, nor his seed begging their bread.

26 The righteous is ever merciful, and lendeth : and his seed is blessed.

mf 27 Flee from evil, and do the thing that is good : and dwell for evermore.

28 For the Lord loveth the thing that is right : he forsaketh not his that be godly, but they are preserved for ever.

29 The unrighteous shall be punished : as for the seed of the ungodly, it shall be rooted out.

30 The righteous shall inherit the land : and dwell therein for ever.

p 31 The mouth of the righteous is exercised in wisdom : and his tongue will be talking of judgment.

32 The law of his God is in his heart : and his goings shall not slide.

33 The ungodly seeth the righteous : and seeketh occasion to slay him.

34 The Lord will not leave him in his hand : nor condemn him when he is judged.

35 Hope thou in the Lord, and keep his way, and he shall promote thee, that thou shalt possess the land : when the ungodly shall perish, thou shalt see it.

36 I myself have seen the ungodly in my great power : and flourishing like a green bay-tree.

37 I went by, and lo, he was gone : I sought him, but his place could not where be found.

38 Keep innocency, and take heed unto the thing that is right : for that shall bring a man peace at the last.

39 As for the transgressors, they shall perish together : and the end of the ungodly is, they shall be rooted out at the last.

40 But the salvation of the righteous cometh of the Lord : who is also their strength in the time of trouble.

41 And the Lord shall stand by them, and save them : he shall deliver them from the ungodly, and shall save them, because they put their trust in him.

No. III. 1.

13 As for me, I was like a deaf mán, and héard not : and as one that is dumb, who dóth not ó-pen his mouth.

14 I became even as a mán that héar-éth not : ánd in whose móuth are nō reproofs.

mf 15 For in thee, O Lórd, have I pút my trust : thou shalt ánsWER fór me, O Lord my God.

16 I have required that they, even mine enemies, should not trÍumph ó-ver me :
for when my foot slipped, they reJóiced gréat-ly against me.

17 And I, trúly, am sèt in the plague :
and my héaviness is ó-ver in my sight.

18 For I will confess my wickedness :
ánd be sór-ry for my sin.

19 But mine énemies líve, and are mighty : and they that hate me wróngfully are má-ny in nüm-ber.

20 They also that reward évil for good are a-against me : because I fólloW the thÍng that good is.

21 Forsake me nót, O Lórd my God :
bè not thou fár fróm me.

22 Háste thee to help-me : O Lord Gód of my sal-vá-tion

PSALM XXXIX. Dixi, custodiam.

mf I SAID, I will tÁke héed to-my ways :
that I offend not in my tongue.

2 I will keep my móuth as it wére with-a bridle : whÍle the unGód-ly-ís in my sight.

3 I held my tÓngue, and spÁke nothing :
I kept silence, yea, even from good words ;
büt it was pain and grÍef to me.

4 My heart was hot wÍthin me, and while I was thus mÓsing the fÍre kindled :
and at the lást I spÁke with my tongue ;

5 Lord, let me know mine end, and the pp nümber óf my days : that I may be cértified how lÓng I háve to-live.

6 Behold, thou hast made my days as it wére a spÁn long : and mine age is even as nothing in respect of thee ; and verily every man living is áltóge-ther vÁ-nity.

7 For man walketh in a vain shadow, and disquieteth himsélF in vain : he heapeth up riches, and cánnót tell who shall gÁther them.

8 And nÓw, Lórd, wHát is-my hope : p truly my hópe is ó-ven in thee.

9 Deliver mé from áll mine-of-fences :
and make me not a rebúke ún-to-the fóol-ish.

10 I became dumb, and ó-pened nót my mouth : fór it was thý dö-íng.

11 Take thy plÁgue áway fróm-me : I am even consumed by the méans of-thy héavy hand.

12 When thou with rebukes dost chasten man for sin, thou makest his beauty to consume away, like as it were a móth frét-ing-a garment : every man thérefore ís but vÁ-nity.

13 Hear my prayer, O Lord, and with pp thine éars consÍ-der-my calling : hÓld not thy péace at my tears.

14 For I am a strÁn-ger with thee :
and a sójournér, as áll my fÁthers wére.

15 O spare me a little, that I may recó-ver-my strength : before I go hénce, and be nÓ móre seen.

PSALM xl. Expectans expectavi.

f I WAITED patiently for the Lord : and he inclined unto me, and heard my calling.

2 He brought me also out of the horrible pit, out of the mire and clay : and set my feet upon the rock, and ordered my goings.

3 And he hath put a new song in my mouth : even a thanksgiving unto our God.

4 Many shall see it, and fear : and shall put their trust in the Lord.

5 Blessed is the man that hath set his hope in the Lord : and turned not unto the proud, and to such as go about with lies.

mf 6 O Lord my God, great are the wondrous works which thou hast done, like as be also thy thoughts which are to us-ward : and yet there is no man that ordereth them un-to thee.

7 If I should declare them, and speak of them : they should be more than I am able to express.

8 Sacrifice, and meat-offering, thou wouldst not : but mine ears hast thou opened.

9 Burnt-offerings, and sacrifice for sin, hast thou not required : then said I, Lo, I come,

10 In the volume of the book it is written of me, that I should fulfil thy will, O my God : I am content to do it ; yea, thy law is within my heart.

11 I have declared thy righteousness in the great congregation : lo, I will not refrain my lips, O Lord, and that thou knowest.

12 I have not hid thy righteousness within my heart : my talk hath been of thy truth, and of thy salvation.

13 I have not kept back thy loving mercy and truth : from the great congregation.

14 Withdraw not thou thy mercy from me, O Lord : let thy loving-kindness and thy truth always preserve me

15 For innumerable troubles are come about me ; my sins have taken such hold upon me that I am not able to look up : yea, they are more in number than the hairs of my head, and my heart hath failed me.

16 O Lord, let it be thy pleasure to deliver me : make haste, O Lord, to help me.

17 Let them be ashamed, and confounded together, that seek after my soul to destroy it : let them be driven backward, and put to rebuke, that wish me evil.

18 Let them be desolate, and rewarded with shame : that say unto me, Rise upon thee, rise upon thee.

19 Let all those that seek thee be joyful and glad in thee : and let such as love thy salvation say always, The Lord be praised.

20 As for me, I am poor and needy : but the Lord careth for me.

21 Thou art my helper and redeemer : make no long tarrying, O my God.

PSALM xli. Beatus qui intelligit.

mf BLESS-ED' is he that considereth the poor and needy : the Lord shall deliver him in the time of trou-ble.

2 The Lord preserve him, and keep him alive, that he may be blessed upon earth : and deliver not thou him into the will of his e-ne-mies.

2d Pt. 3 The Lord comfort him, when he lieth sick upon his bed : make thou all his bed in his sick-ness.

p 4 I said, Lord, be merciful un-to me : heal my soul, for I have sin-ned a-gainst thee.

5 Mine enemies speak e-vil of me : When shall he die, and his name pe-rish ?

6 And if he come to see me, he speak-eth vanity : and his heart conceiveth falsehood within himself, and when he cometh forth he tell-eth it.

7 All mine enemies whisper together against me : even against me do they imagine this e-vil.

8 Let the sentence of guiltiness proceed against him : and now that he lieth, let him rise up no more.

9 Yea, even mine own familiar friend, whom I trusted : who did also eat of my bread, hath laid great wait for me.

mf 10 But be thou merciful unto me, O Lord : raise thou me up again, and I shall re-ward them.

11 By this I know thou fa-vourest me : that mine enemy doth not tri-umph a-against me.

12 And when I am in my health, thou uphold-est me : and shalt set me before thy face for e-ver.

13 Blessed be the Lord God of Is-ra-el : world without end. A-men.

PSALM xlii. Quemadmodum.

L IKE as the hart desireth the wa-ter-m^h brooks : so longeth my soul after thee, O God.

2 My soul is athirst for God, yea, seven p for the liv-ing God : when shall I come to appear before the pre-sence of God ?

3 My tears have been my meat day and night : while they daily say unto me, Where is now thy God ?

4 Now when I think thereupon, I pour out my heart by my-self : for I went with the multitude, and brought them forth into the house of God ;

5 In the voice of praise and thanks-giving : mf 2d P among such as keep ho-ly-day.

6 Why art thou so full of heaviness, pp O my soul : and why art thou so disquiet-ed with-in me ?

7 Put thy trust in God : for I will yet mf give him thanks for the help of his coun-ten-ance.

8 My God, my soul is vex-ed with-in me : therefore will I remember thee concerning the land of Jordan, and the little hill of Her-mon.

9 One deep calleth another, because of the noise of the wa-ter-pipes : all thy waves and storms are gone o-ver me.

10 The Lord hath granted his loving-kindness in the day-time : and in the night-season did I sing of him, and made my prayer unto the God of my life.

11 I will say unto the God of my strength, Why hast thou forgot-ten me : why go I thus heavily, while the enemy-op-press-eth me ?

12 My bones are smitten asunder as with a sword : while mine enemies that trouble me cast me in the teeth ;

13 Namely, while they say da-f-ly-un-to-me : Where is now thy God ?

pp 14 Why art thou so vexed, O my soul : and why art thou so disquiet-ed-with-in me ?

mf 15 O put thy trust in God : for I will yet thank him, which is the help of my countenance, and my God.

PSALM xliiii. Judica me, Deus.

mf GIVE sentence with me, O God, and defend my cause against the ungod-ly people : O deliver me from the deceit-ful-and wick-ed man.

2 For thou art the God of my strength, why hast thou put me from-thee : and why go I so heavily, while the enemy-op-pres-eth me ?

3 O send out thy light and thy truth, that they may lead-me : and bring me unto thy holy hill, and to-thy dwell-ing.

4 And that I may go unto the altar of God, even unto the God of my joy and gladness : and upon the harp will I give thanks unto thee, O God, my God.

3 For they gat not the land in possession through their own sword : neither was it their own arm that help-ed them ;

4 But thy right hand, and thine arm, and the light of thy countenance : because thou hadst a fa-vour un-to them.

f 5 Thou art my King, O God : send help unto Ja-cob.

- 6 Thy arrows are very sharp, and the people shall be subdued un-to thee : even in the midst among the King's enemies.
- 7 Thy seat, O God, endureth for ever : the sceptre of thy kingdom is a right sceptre.
- 8 Thou hast loved righteousness, and hated iniquity : wherefore God, even thy God, hath anointed thee with the oil of gladness above thy fellows.

6 O sing praises, sing praises un-to-our God : O sing praises, sing prais-es unto our King.

7 For God is the King of all the earth : sing ye praises with un-der-stānd-ing.

8 God reigneth o-ver the heathen : God sitteth upon his hōly seat.

2 The hill of Sion is a fair place, and the joy of the whole earth : upon the north-side lieth the city of the great King ; God is well known in her palaces as a sûre rē-fuge.

3 For lo, the kings of the earth : are p-gathered, and gone by to-gē-ther.

4 They marvelled to see such things : they were astonished, and súd-denly cast down.

5 Fear came there upon them, and sorrow : as upon a woman in her trā-veil.

that dwell in the world ;

2 High and low, rich and poor : one with another.

3 My mouth shall speak of wisdom : and my heart shall muse of understanding.

4 I will incline mine ear to the parable ;
and shew my dark speech up on the harp.

p 5 Wherefore should I fear in the days of wickedness : and when the wickedness of my heels compasseth me round about ?

6 There be some that put their trust in their goods : and boast themselves in the multitude of their riches.

7 But no man may deliver his brother :
nor make agreement unto God for him ;

8 For it cost more to redeem their souls :
so that he must let that alone for ever ;

9 Yea, though he live long : and see not the grave.

mf 10 For he seeth that wise men also die, and perish together : as well as the ignorant and foolish, and leave their riches for other.

11 And yet they think that their houses shall continue for ever : and that their dwelling-places shall endure from one generation to another ; and call the lands after their own names.

12 Nevertheless, man will not abide in honour : seeing he may be compared unto the beasts that perish ; this is the way of them.

13 This is their foolishness : and their posterity praise their saying.

14 They lie in the hell like sheep, death gnaweth upon them, and the righteous shall have domination over them in the morning : their beauty shall consume in the sepulchre out of their dwelling.

15 But God hath delivered my soul from the place of hell : for he shall receive me.

16 Be not thou afraid, though one be made rich : or if the glory of his house be increased ;

17 For he shall carry nothing away with him when he dieth : neither shall his pomp follow him.

18 For while he lived, he counted himself an happy man : and so long as thou doest well unto thyself, men will speak good of thee.

4 But they are all gone out of the way, they are altogether become a-bô-mi-nable : there is also nône that doeth good, no not one.

p 5 Are not they without understanding that work wickedness : eating up my people as if they would eat bread ? they have not call-ed upon God.

6 They were afraid where nô fear was : for God hath broken the bones of him that besieged thee ; thou hast put them to confusion, because Gôd hath despised them.

7 Oh, that the salvation were given f unto Is-rael out of Sion : Oh, that the Lord would deliver his people out of capti-vity !

PSALM lv. Exaudi, Deus.

mf HÊAR my prayér, O God : and hide not thysêlf from my peti-tion.

2 Take hêed unto me, and hêar me :
how I mourn in my pray-er, and am vêx-ed.

3 The enemy crieth so, and the ungodly cómeth ón so fast : for they are minded to do me some mischief ; so maliciously sêe they sêt a-gainst me.

p 4 My heart is disquietéd with-in-me :
and the fear of dêath is fáll-en upón me.

5 Fearfulness and trêmbing are come up-on-me : and an horrible drêad hath ô-ver-whêlm-ed-me.

6 And I said, Ó that I had wings like-a dove : for then would I flêe a-way, and be at rest.

7 Lo, then would I gêt me áway far off : and re-máin in-the wil-derness.

8 I would máke háste to-es-cape :
because of the stôr my wínd and têm-pest.

f 9 Destroy their tóngues, O Lôrð, and-di-vide-them : for I have spied unrighteousness and strífe in-the ci-ty.

10 Day and night they go about withín the wálls there-of : mischief also and sorrow are ín the mídst of it.

11 Wickedness is there-in : deceit and guile gô not out of their streets.

12 For it is not an open enemy, that hath dône me this dis-honour : for thên I could-have bórne it.

mf 13 Neither was it mine adversary, that did magnify hímself against me : for then peradventure I would have híd my-sêlf

14 But it was éven thóu, my-com-panion :
my guíde, and mine ówn fa-mi-liar friend.

15 We tóok sweet coun-sel-to-gether :
and wálked in the hóuse of God as friends.

16 Let death come hastily upon them, and let them gô down quíck into hell :
for wickedness is in their dwêll-ings, and a-móng them.

17 As for mê, I will cáll upon God : p and the Lôrð shall sáve me.

18 In the evening, and morning, and at noon-day will I pray, and that instantly :
and hé shall hear my voice.

19 It is he that hath delivered my soul in peace from the báltle that was against me : fór there were má-ny with me.

20 Yea, even God, that endureth for for they will not túrn, nor féar God.

21 He laid his hands upon such as bê at peace with him : and he bráke his côve-nant.

22 The words of his mouth were softer than bútter, having wár in-his heart : his words were smóother than oil, and yêt bê

23 O cast thy burden upon the Lôrð, pp and he shall nóu-rish thee : and shall not suffer the righteous to fáll for é-ver.

24 And ás for them : thou, O God, shalt mf bring them ín to-the pítt of destrúct-ion.

25 The blood-thirsty and deceitful men

PSALM lvi. Miserere mei, Deus.

mf BE¹ merciful unto me, O God, for man goeth about to devour me : he is daily fight-ing, and troubl-ing me.

2 Mine enemies are daily in hand to swal-low-me up : for they be many that fight against me, O thou most High-est.

p 3 Nevertheless, though I am some-time-a-fraid : yet put I my trust in thee.

4 I will praise God, because of his word : I have put my trust in God, and will not fear what flesh can do unto me.

mf 5 They daily mistake my words : all that they imagine is to do me evil.

6 They hold all together, and keep themselves close : and mark my steps, when they lay wait for my soul.

2d Pt. 7 Shall they escape for their wickedness : thou, O God, in thy displea-sure shalt cast them down.

p 8 Thou tellest my fittings ; put my tears in-to thy bottle : are not these things not-ed in thy book ?

9 Whosoever I call upon thee, then shall mine enemies be put to flight : this I know ; for God is on my side.

f 10 In God's word will I re-joice : in the Lord's word will I com-fort me.

11 Yea, in God have I put my trust : I will not be afraid what man can do unto me.

12 Unto thee, O God, will I pay my vows : unto thee will I give thanks.

13 For thou hast delivered my soul from death, and my feet from falling : that I may walk before God in the light of the liv-ing.

PSALM lvii. Miserere mei, Deus.

BE merciful unto me, O God, be merciful unto me, for my soul trust-eth in thee : and under the shadow of thy wings shall be my refuge, until this ty-ranny be o-ver-past.

2 I will call unto the most high God : even unto the God that shall perform the cause which I have in hand.

3 He shall send from heaven : and save me from the reproof of him that would eat me up.

4 God shall send forth his mer-cy and mf truth : my soul is among li-ons.

2 O deliver me from the wick-ed doers : and save me from the blood-thirsty men.

mf 3 For lo, they lie waiting for my soul : the mighty men are gathered against me, without any offence or fault of me, O Lord.

4 They run and prepare themselves without my fault : arise thou therefore to help me, and be-hold.

5 Stand up, O Lord God of hosts, thou God of Israel, to visit all the heathen : and be not merciful unto them that offend of malicious wick-edness.

6 They go to and fro in the evening : they grin like a dog, and run about through the city.

f 7 Behold, they speak with their mouth, and words are in their lips : for who doth hear ?

8 But thou, O Lord, shalt have them in derision : and thou shalt laugh all the heathen to scorn.

f MY soul ¹ truly waiteth still upon God :
for of him cometh my sal-vā-tion.

3 How long will ye imagine mischief against é-very man : ye shall be slain all the sort of you ; yea, as a tottering wall shall ye bê, and like a bro-ken hedge.

4 Their device is only how to put him out whom GóD will-ex-alt : their delight is in lies ; they give good words with their mouth, but cōse with their heart.

p 5 Nevertheless, my soul, wait thou still upon God : for my hope is in him.

6 He truly is my strength and my sal-vation : he is my defence, so that I shall not fall.

7 In God is my health, and my glory : the rock of my might, and in GóD is my trust.

8 O put your trust in him al-way, ye people : pour out your hearts before him, for GóD is our hope.

9 As for the children of mên, they are but my vanity : the children of men are deceitful upon the weights, they are altogether lighter than vá-ni-ty it-self.

10 O trust not in wrong and robbery, give not yourselves ún-to vanity : if riches increase, set not your heart up-on them.

5 As long as I live will I magnify thee in this manner : and lift up my hands in thy Name.

6 My soul shall be satisfied, even as it were with marrow and fatness : when my mouth praiseth thee with joyful lips.

7 Have I not remembered thee in my bed : and thought upon thee when I was waking?

p SÄVE 'mê, O God : for the waters are come in, e-ven unto my soul.

2 I stick fast in the deep mire, where no ground is : I am come into deep waters, so that the floods run o-ver me.

3 I am weary of crying ; my throat is dry : my sight faileth me for waiting so long up-on my God.

4 They that hate me without a cause are more than the hairs of-my head : they that are mine enemies, and would destroy me guilt-less, are migh-ty.

mf 5 I paid them the things that I never took : God, thou knowest my simpleness, and my faults are-not hid from thee.

6 Let not them that trust in thee, O Lord God of hosts, be ashamed for my cause : let not those that seek thee be confounded through mê, O Lord God-of Is-ra-el.

7 And why? for thy sâke have I suf-fer'd-re-proof : shâme hath cö-ved my face.

8 I am become a stranger ün-to-my brethren : even an alien ün-to my mö-ther's chil-dren.

9 For the zeal of thine house hath êven eat-en me : and the rebukes of them that rebuked thee are fâ-l-len up-on me.

10 I wept, and châstened mysêlf with fasting : and thât was turn-ed-to my re-proof.

11 I put on sack-cloth also : and they jest-ed up-on me.

12 They that sit in the gâte speak a-gainst me : and the drûnkards make songs up-ön me.

13 But, Lord, I mâke my præyer unto thee : in an ac-cept-able time.

14 Hear me, O God, in the mûltitude of thy mercy : even in the trûth of thy sal-vâ-tion.

15 Take me out of the mire, that I sink not : O let me be delivered from them that hate me, and out of the deep wä-ter.

16 Let not the water-flood drown me, neither let the dëep swäl-low-me up : and let not the pit shût her mouth up-ön me.

17 Hear me, O Lord, for thy loving-kindness is cöm-forta-ble : turn thee unto me according to the mûltitude of thy mër-cies.

18 And hide not thy face from thy sêrvant, for I am-in trouble : O haste thee, and hear me.

19 Draw nigh ün-to my sôul, and save-it : O delîver me, because of-mine e-ne-mies.

20 Thou hast known my reproof,mf

my shâme, and my dis-honour : mine adversaries are kill in thy sight.

21 Thy rebuke hath broken my heart ; I am full of heaviness : I looked for some to have pity on me, but there was no man, neither found I any to com-fort me.

22 They gâve me gall to eat : and when I was thirsty they gâve me vinegar to drink.

23 Let their table be made a snare to take themselves with-al : and let the things that should have been for their wealth be unto them an occâ-sion of fall-ing.

24 Let their eyes be blinded, that they see not : and ever bow thou down their backs.

25 Pour out thine indignation-up-on-them : and let thy wrathful displea-sure-take hold of them.

26 Let their habits-tion-be void : and no man to dwell in their tents.

27 For they persecute him whom thou hast smitten : and they talk how they may vex them whom thou hast wound-ed.

28 Let them fall from one wickedness to a-nother : and not come in-to-thy right-eous-ness.

29 Let them be wiped out of the book of-the living : and not be written among the right-eous.

30 As for me, when I am poor and-in p heaviness : thy help, O God, shall lift me up.

32 This also shall please the Lord : better than a bullock that hath horns and hoofs.

33 The humble shall consider this, and-be glad : seek ye after God, and-your soul shall live.

34 For the Lord hear-eth-the poor : and despiseth not his pri-son-ers.

35 Let heaven and earth praise him : the sea, and all that moveth there-in.

36 For God will save Sion, and build the ci-ties-of Judah : that men may dwell there, and have it in pos-ses-sion.

37 The posterity also of his servants shall inhe-rit it : and they that love his Name shall dwell there-in.

PSALM lxx. Deus in adiutorium.

HASTE thee, O God, to deli-ver me : my make haste to help me, O Lord.

2 Let them be ashamed and confounded that seek af-ter-my soul : let them be turned backward and put to confusion that wish me e-vil.

3 Let them for their reward be soon brought to shame : that cry o-ver-me, There, there.

4 But let all those that seek thee be joyful and glad in thee : and let all such as delight in thy salvation say alway, The Lord be prais-ed.

5 As for me, I am poor and-in misery : p haste thee un-to me, O God.

PSALM lxxi. In te, Domine, speravi.

mf IN¹ thee, O Lord, have I put my trust, let me never be put to confusion : but rid me, and deliver me, in thy righteousness ; incline thine ear unto me, and save me.

2 Be thou my strong hold, whereunto I may al-way re-sort : thou hast promised to help me, for thou art my house of defence, and my cas-tle.

3 Deliver me, O my God, out of the hand of the un-godly : out of the hand of the unright-eous and cru-el man.

4 For thou, O Lord God, art the thing that I long for : thou art my hope, e-ven from my youth.

2d Pt. 5 Through thee have I been holden up e-ver since I was born : thou art he that took me out of my mother's womb ; my praise shall be al-ways of thee.

p 6 I am become as it were a monster un-to many : but my sure trust is in thee.

7 O let my mouth be filled with thy praise : that I may sing of thy glory and honour al-l the day long.

8 Cast me not away in the time of age : forsake me not when my strength fail-eth me.

9 For mine enemies speak against me, and they that lay wait for my soul take their counsel toge-ther, saying : God hath forsaken him ; persecute him, and take him, for there is none to deliver him.

10 Go not far from me, O God : my God, haste thee to help me.

11 Let them be confounded and perish that are against my soul : let them be covered with shame and dishonour that seek to do me e-vil.

12 As for me, I will patiently abide alway : and will praise thee more and more.

13 My mouth shall daily speak of thy righteousness and sal-vation : for I know no end there-of.

14 I will go forth in the strength of the Lord God : and will make mention of thy right-eousness on-ly.

15 Thou, O God, hast taught me from my youth up un-til now : therefore will I tell of thy won-drous works.

16 Forsake me not, O God, in mine old age, when I am gray-headed : until I have shewed thy strength unto this generation, and thy power to all them that are yet for to come.

17 Thy righteousness, O God, is ve-ry high : and great things are they that thou hast done ; O God, who is like un-to thee ?

18 O what great troubles and adversities hast thou shewed me ! and yet didst thou turn and-re-fresh-me : yea, and broughtest me from the deep of the earth again.

19 Thou hast brought me to great honour : and comforted me on e-very side.

mf 20 Therefore will I praise thee and thy faithfulness, O God, playing upon an instrument of musick : unto thee will I sing upon the harp, O thou Hôly One of Is-ra-el.

21 My lips will be fâin when I sing unto thee : and so will my sôul whom thou hast deli-vered.

3 The mountains also shall bring peace : and the little hills righteousness un-to the peo-ple.

4 He shall keep the simple folk by thy right : defend the children of the poor, and punish the wrong dô-er.

5 They shall fear thee, as long as the sùn and mûon en-dureth : from one generat'ôn to a-nô-ther.

7 In his time shall the right-eous flourish : yea, and abundance of peace, so long as the moon en-dür-eth.

8 His dominion shall be also from the ône sea to the other : and from the flood un-to the world's end.

9 They that dwell in the wilderness shall kneel be-fore him : his ê-nemies shall lick the dust.

10 The kings of Tharsis and of the Isles shall give presents : the kings of Arâbia and Sâ-ba shall bring gifts.

11 All kings shall fâil down be-2d Pt. fore him : all nâtions shall dô him sër-vice.

12 For he shall deliver the pûor when he crieth : the needy also, and him that hath no hêlp-er.

14 He shall deliver their sôuls from false-hood and wrong : and dêar shall their blood be in his sight.

15 He shall live, and unto him shall be gîven of the gold of A-rabia : prayer shall be made ever unto him, and daily shall he be prais-ed.

16 There shall be an heap of corn in the earth, high upon the hills : his fruit shall shake like Libanus, and shall be green in the city like grass upon the earth.

17 His Name shall endure for ever ; his Name shall remain under the sùn among the-pos-terities : which shall be blessed through him ; and all the hea-then shall praise him.

mf TRU-LY! God is lóving unto Ís-ra-el : even unto sùch as áre of a cléan heart.

2 Nevertheless, my fêet were ál-most gone : mý tread-ings had well-nigh slipt.

p 3 And why? I was griéved át the wicked : I do also see the ungodly in sùch pros-pè-rity.

4 For they are in nò pé-ri!-of death :
bùt are lús-ty and strong.

5 They come in no misfortune líke

9 For they stretch forth their móuth

10 Therefore fall the pèople ún-to

2d Pt. 11 Tush, say they, hów should Gód

13 All the day lóng have Í been punished : and ch!stened éve-ry mórn-ing.

14 Yea, and I had almost sáid é-ven-as 15 Then thóught I to ún-derstand this :

bùt it was tóo hard for me,

16 Until I went into the sánc-tu-á-ry-of God : then understóod I the énd of these men ;

17 Namely, how thou dost sèt them in and destroy-est them.

18 Oh, how súddenly dó they-con-sùme :

24 Whom have Í in hé!ven but thee :
and there is none upon earth that I des!re in comp!-rison of thee.

25 My f!esh and my hé!rt faileth : but God is the strength of my hé!rt, and my pòr-tion-for é-ve-ry.

26 For lo, they that fors!ke thee-shall f perish : thou hast destroyed all them that commit fórnica-tion agáinst thee.

PSALM LXXIV. Ut quid Deus?

mf O GOD, wherefore art thou absent from us-so long : why is thy wrath so hot against the sheep of thy päs-ture ?

2 O think upon thy cón-gre-gation : whom thou hast purchased, and re-deemed of old.

3 Think upon the tribe of thine in-heritance : and mount Sion, whereñ thou hast dwelt.

4 Lift up thy feet, that thou mayest utterly destroy éve-ry enemy : which hath done évil in thy sanc-tua-ry.

f 5 Thine adversaries roar in the midst of thy cón-gre-gations : and set up their bän-ners for tö-kens.

6 He that hewed timber afore out of the thïck trees : was known to bring it to an ex-cel-lent work.

7 But now they break down all the car-vèd work there-of : with áx-es, and häm-mers.

8 They have set fire upon thy hó-ly places : and have defiled the dwelling-place of thy Náme, é-ven un-to the-ground.

9 Yea, they said in their hearts, Let us make há-cock of them ál-to-gether : thus have they burnt up all the hóuses of GóD in the land.

10 We see not our tokens, there is not one pró-phet more : no, not one is there among us, that únder-stánd-eth a-ny more.

mf 11 O God, how long shall the ád-versary dó this-dis-honour : how long shall the enemy blas-phème thy Náme, for é-ve-r ?

12 Why with-dráwest thou thy hand : why pluckest thou not thy right hand out of thy bosom to cón-súme the é-nemy ?

13 For GóD is my Kíng of old : the help that is done upon éarth he dó-eth it him-self.

14 Thou didst divíde the sea through thy power : thou brakest the heads of the drá-gons in the wä-ters.

15 Thou smotest the héads of Leví-athan in pieces : and gavest him to be meat for the péople in the wil-derness.

16 Thou broughtest out fountains and waters out of the hárd rocks : thou driedst up mígh-ty wä-ters.

17 The day is thine, and the níght is thine : thou hast pré-pared the níght and the sun.

18 Thou hast set all the bórders of the earth : thou hast máde súm-mer and wín-ter.

19 Remember this, O Lord, how the é-nemy háth re-buked : and how the foolish people háth blas-phém-ed thy Náme.

20 O deliver not the soul of thy turtle-dove unto the múlti-tude of the enemies : and forget not the congregation of the póor for é-ve-r.

21 Lóok upon the covenant : for all the earth is full of darkness, and crúel há-bi-tá-tions.

22 O let not the simple gó awáy a-shamed : but let the poor and needy gíve praise unto thy Náme.

23 Arise, O God, maintáin thine ówn cause : remember how the foolish mán blas-phém-eth thee dá-ily.

PSALM LXXVIII. Attendite, popule.

f HEAR my law, O my people: incline your ears unto the words of my mouth.

2 I will open my mouth in a parable: I will declare hard sentences of old;

3 Which we have heard and known: and such as our fathers have told us;

4 That we should not hide them from the children of the generations to come: but to shew the honour of the Lord, his mighty and wonderful works that he hath done.

mf 5 He made a covenant with Jacob, and gave Israel a law: which he commanded our forefathers to teach their children;

6 That their posterity might know it: and the children which were yet unborn;

7 To the intent that when they came up: they might shew their children the same;

8 That they might put their trust in God: and not to forget the works of God, but to keep his commandments;

9 And not to be as their forefathers, a faithless and stubborn generation: a generation that set not their heart aright, and whose spirit cleaveth not steadfastly unto God;

10 Like as the children of Ephraim: who being harnessed, and carrying bows, turned themselves back in the day of battle.

p 11 They kept not the covenant of God: and would not walk in his law;

12 But forgot what he had done: and the wonderful works that he had shewed for them.

13 Marvellous things did he in the sight of our forefathers, in the land of Egypt: even in the field of Zoan.

14 He divided the sea, and let them go through: he made the waters to stand on an heap.

15 In the day-time also he led them with a cloud: and all the night through with a light of fire.

16 He clave the hard rocks in the wilderness: and gave them drink thereof, as it had been out of the great depth.

17 He brought waters out of the stony rock: so that it gushed out like the rivers.

No. I. 2.

No. II. 2.

18 Yet for all this they sinned more against him: and provoked the most High in the wilderness.

19 They tempted God in their hearts: and required meat for their lust.

20 They spake against Góð ál-so, saying : Shall God prepare a tá·ble in the wil·derness ?

21 He smote the stony rock indeed, that the water gushed out, and the stréams flów·ed·with·al : but can he give bread also, or províde flesh for·his pëo·ple ?

22 When the Lord héard this, he was wroth : so the fire was kindled in Jacob, and there came up héavy·dis·pléa·sure·a·gainst Is·ra·el ;

23 Because they believed nó't in God : and pút not·their trúst in his help.

24 So he commanded the clóuds a·bove : and ó·pen'd the doors of heaven.

25 He rained down manna also upón them fór·to eat : and gáve them food from heaven.

26 So mán did eat án·gels' food : fór·he sént them méat enough.

27 He caused the east·wind to blów ún·der heaven : and through his pówer·he bróught in·the south·west·wind.

28 He rained flesh upón them as thíck as dust : and feathered fówls líke as·the sand of the·sea.

29 He let it fáll among their tents : even round about·their há·bi·tá·tion.

30 So they did eat, and were well filled ; for he gáve them their ówn de·sire : they wêre not dis·ap·point·ed of their lust.

32 But for all thís they sín·ned·yet more : and believed nó't his won·drous·wörks.

33 Therefore their dâys did he consúme in vanity : and their yéars in trou·blé.

34 When he sléw them, they sóught him : and turned them early, and enquir·ed af·ter·Gód.

35 And they remémbered that Gód was·their strength : and that the high Gód was thêr re·deem·ër.

36 Nevertheless, they did but flá·tter him with their mouth : and dis·sem·bled with him in their·tóngue.

37 For their héart was not whí·le with·him : neither continued they sté·d·fast in his co·venánt.

38 But he was so merciful, thát he p forgáve their·mis·deeds : and destróy·ed them nó't.

39 Yea, many a time túrned he his wráth a·way : and would not suffer his whó·le dis·pléa·sure to arise.

p 53 But as for his own people, he léd them fórtli like sheep : and carried them ín the wí-l-dér-ness like a flock.

54 He brought them out safely, thát they should not fear : and overwhé-lmed their é-nemies with the sea.

55 And brought them within the borders óf his sánc-tu-ary : even to his moun-tain which he púrchased wíth his ríght hand.

56 He cast out the héathen á-l-so-be-fore-them : caused their land to be divided among them for an heritage, and made the tribes of Ísrael to dwéll in their tents.

57 So they tempted, and displeas-ed the móst hgh God : and képt not-his tes-tí-mo-nies ;

58 But turned their backs, and fell away líke their fóre-fathers : stárting áside líke-a bro-ken bow.

59 For they grieved him with their íd-ol-altars : and provoked him to disp-léa-sure wíth their í-mages.

60 When God heard this, he was wroth : and took sore displeasure at Is-rahel.

61 So that he forsook the tabernacle in Silo : even the tent that he had pitched among men.

62 He delivered their power into captivity : and their beauty into the enemy's hand.

63 He gave his people over also into the sword : and was wroth with his inheritance.

64 The fire consumed their young men : and their maidens were not given to marriage.

65 Their priests were slain with the sword : and there were no widows to make lamentation.

66 So the Lord awaked as one out of sleep : and like a giant refreshed with wine.

67 He smote his enemies in the hinder parts : and put them to a perpetual shame.

68 He refused the tabernacle of Joseph : and chose not the tribe of Ephraim ;

69 But chose the tribe of Judah : even the hill of Sion which he loved.

70 And there he built his temple on high : and laid the foundation of it like the ground which he hath made continually.

71 He chose David also his servant : and took him away from the sheep-folds.

72 As he was following the ewes great with young ones he took him : that he might feed Jacob his people, and Israel his inheritance.

73 So he fed them with a faithful and true heart : and ruled them prudently with all his power.

mf GOD, the heathen are come into thine inheritance : thy holy temple have they defiled, and made Jerusalem an heap of stones.

on every side of Jeru-sa-lem : and there was no man to bu-ry them.

4 We are become an open shame to our enemies : a very scorn and derision unto them that are round a-bout us.

p 5 Lord, how long wilt thou be angry : shall thy jealousy burn like fire for ever ?

6 Pour out thine indignation upon the heathen that have not known thee : and upon the kingdoms that have not called-upon thy Name.

7 For they have devour-ed Jacob : and laid waste his dwell-ing-place.

pp 8 O remember not our old sins, but have mercy upon us, and that soon : for we are come to great mi-sery.

9 Help us, O God of our salvation, for the glory of thy Name : O deliver us, and be merciful unto our sins, for thy Name's sake.

10 Wherefore do the hea-then say : Where is now their God ?

11 O let the vengeance of thy servants' blood that is shed : be openly shewed upon the hea-then in our sight.

p 12 O let the sorrowful sighing of the prisoners come be-fore thee : according to the greatness of thy power, preserve thou those that are ap-point-ed to die.

13 And for the blasphemy wherewith our neighbours have blasphem-ed thee : reward thou them, O Lord, sevenfold in-to-their bo-som.

14 So we, that are thy people, and sheep of thy pasture, shall give thee thanks for ever : and will always be shewing forth thy praise from generation to ge-ne-ra-tion.

PSALM LXXX. Qui regis Israel.

HEAR, O thou Shepherd of Israel, thou that ledest Joseph like a sheep : shew thyself also, thou that sittest upon the che-ru-bims.

2 Before Ephraim, Benjamin, and Man-asses : stir up thy strength, and come, and help us.

3 Turn us again, O God : shew the light of thy countenance, and we shall be whole.

4 O Lord God of hosts : how long wilt thou be angry with thy people that pray-eth ?

5 Thou feedest them with the bread of tears : and givest them plenteousness of tears to drink.

6 Thou hast made us a very strife un-to-our neighbours : and our enemies laugh us to scorn.

7 Turn us again, thou God of hosts : shew the light of thy countenance, and we shall be whole.

8 Thou hast brought a vine out of Egypt : thou hast cast out the hea-then, and plant-ed it.

9 Thou madest room for it : and when it had taken root it fill-ed the-land.

10 The hills were covered with the sha-dow of it : and the boughs thereof were like the good-ly ce-dar-trees.

11 She stretched out her branches un-to-the sea : and her boughs un-to-the ri-ver.

12 Why hast thou then broken down her hedge : that all they that go by pluck off her grapes ?

13 The wild boar out of the wood doth root it up : and the wild beasts of the field de-vour it.

17 Let thy hand be upon the man of thy right hand : and upon the son of man, whom thou madest so strong for thine own self.

mf SING we merrily unto God our strength : make a cheerful noise unto the God of Jacob.

2 Take the psalm, bring hither the tabret : the merry harp with the lute.

3 Blow up the trumpet in the new-moon : even in the time appointed, and upon our solemn feast-day.

p 4 For this was made a statute for Israel : and a law of the God of Jacob.

5 This he ordained in Joseph for a testimony : when he came out of the land of Egypt, and had heard a strange language.

mf 6 I eased his shoulder from the burden : and his hands were delivered from making the pots.

7 Thou calledst upon me in troubles, and I delivered thee : and heard thee what time as the storm fell upon thee.

8 I provoked thee also : at the waters of strife.

9 Hear, O my people, and I will assure thee, O Israel : if thou wilt hearken-un-to me,

10 There shall no strange god be in thee : neither shalt thou worship any other god.

11 I am the Lord thy God, who brought thee out of the land of Egypt : open thy mouth wide, and I shall fill it.

12 But my people would not hear my voice : and Israel would not obey me.

13 So I gave them up unto their own hearts' lusts : and let them follow their own imaginations.

14 O that my people would have hearkened un-to me : for if Israel had walked in my ways, 15 I should soon have put down their enemies : and turned my hand against their adversaries.

16 The haters of the Lord should have been found liars : but their time should have endured for ever.

8 God is very greatly to be feared in the council of the saints : and to be had in reverence of all them that are round about him.

9 O Lord God of hosts, who is like unto thee : thy truth, most mighty Lord, is on every side.

10 Thou rulest the raging of the sea : thou stillest the waves thereof when they arise.

11 Thou hast subdued Egypt, and destroyed it : thou hast scattered thine enemies abroad with thy mighty arm.

PSALM xciii. Dominus regnavit.

mf THE Lord is King, and hath put on glorious apparel : the Lord hath put on his apparel, and girded him-self with strength.

3 Ever since the world began hath thy seat been-pre-pared : thou art from ever-last-ing.

2 He hath made the round world so sure : that it cannot be moved.

4 The floods are risen, O Lord, the floods have lift up their voice : the floods lift up their waves.

5 The waves of the sea are mighty, and rage horribly : but yet the Lord, who dwelleth on high, is mightier.

6 Thy testimonies, O Lord, are very sure : holiness becometh thine house for ever.

PSALM xciv. Deus ultionum.

O LORD God, to whom vengeance belongeth : thou God, to whom vengeance belongeth, shew thyself.

2 Arise, thou Judge of the world : and reward the proud after their deserving.

p 3 Lord, how long shall the ungodly : how long shall the ungodly triumph ?

4 How long shall all wicked doers speak so disdainfully : and make such proud boasting ?

5 They smite down thy people, O Lord : and trouble thine heritage.

6 They murder the widow, and the stranger : and put the fatherless to death.

2d Pt. 7 And yet they say, Tush, the Lord shall not see : neither shall the God of Jacob regard it.

mf 8 Take heed, ye unwise among the people : O ye fools, when will ye understand ?

9 He that planted the ear, shall he not hear : or he that made the eye, shall he not see ?

10 Or he that nurtureth the heathen : it is he that teacheth man knowledge, shall not he punish ?

11 The Lord knoweth the thoughts of man : that they are but vain.

12 Blessed is the man whom thou chastenest, O Lord : and teachest him in thy law ;

13 That thou mayest give him patience in time of adversity : until the pit be digged up for the ungodly.

14 For the Lord will not fail his people : neither will he forsake his inheritance ;

15 Until righteousness turn again unto judgment : all such as are true in heart shall follow it.

16 Who will rise up with me against the wicked : or who will take my part against the evil-doers ?

17 If the Lord had not helped me : it had not failed but my soul had been put to silence.

18 But when I said, My foot hath slept : thy mercy, O Lord, held me up.

19 In the multitude of the sorrows that I had in my heart : thy comforts have refreshed my soul.

20 Wilt thou have any thing to do with the stool of wickedness : which imagineth mischief as a law ?

21 They gather them together against the soul of the righteous : and condemn the innocent blood.

22 But the Lord is my refuge : and my God is the strength of my confidence.

23 He shall recompense them their wickedness, and destroy them in their own malice : yea, the Lord our God shall destroy them.

mf HĒAR! my prayer, O Lord : and let my cry'ng come un-to thee.

2 Hide not thy face from me in the time of my trouble : incline thine ear unto me when I call ; O hear me, and that right soon.

pp 3 For my days are consumed away like smoke : and my bones are burnt up as it were a fire-brand.

4 My heart is smitten down, and withered like grass : so that I for-got to eat my bread.

5 For the voice of my groaning : my bones will scarce cleave to my flesh.

6 I am become like a pelican in the wilderness : and like an owl that is in the de-sert.

7 I have watched, and am even as it were a sparrow : that sitteth alone up-on the house-top.

8 Mine enemies revile me all the-day long : and they that are mad upon me are sworn to-ge-ther against me.

9 For I have eaten ashes as it were bread : and mingled my drink with weep-ing ;

10 And that because of thine indigna-tion and wrath : for thou hast taken me up, and cast me down.

11 My days are gone like a shadow : and I am wi-thered like grass.

p 12 But, thou, O Lord, shalt endure for ever ; and thy remembrance throughout all ge-ne-ra-tions.

13 Thou shalt arise, and have mercy upon Sion : for it is time that thou have mercy upon her, yea, the time is come.

14 And why? thy servants think upon her stones : and it pitieth them to see her in the dust.

15 The heathen shall fear thy Name, O Lord : and all the kings of the earth thy Ma-jesty ;

16 When the Lord shall build up Sion : mf and when his glo-ry shall ap-pear ;

17 When he turneth him unto the prayer of the poor destitute : and desp' seth not their de-sire.

18 This shall be written for those that come after : and the people which shall be born shall praise the Lord.

19 For he hath looked down from his sanc-tu-ary : out of the heaven did the Lord be-hold the earth ;

20 That he might hear the mournings of such as are in cap-tivity : and deliver the children ap-point-ed unto death ;

21 That they may declare the Name of the Lord in Sion : and his wor-ship at Je-ru-salem ;

mf 6 The Lord executeth righteousness and judgment : for all them that are oppressed with wrong.

7 He shewed his ways unto Moses : his works unto the children of Israel.

8 The Lord is full of compassion and mercy : long-suffering, and of great goodness.

9 He will not always be chiding : neither keepeth he his anger for ever.

10 He hath not dealt with us according to our sins : nor rewarded us according to our wickednesses.

11 For look how high the heaven is in comparison of the earth : so great is his mercy also toward them that fear him.

12 Look how wide also the east is from the west : so far hath he set our sins from us.

13 Yea, like as a father pitieth his own children : even so is the Lord merciful unto them that fear him.

14 For he knoweth whereof we are made : he remembereth that we are but dust.

15 The days of man are but as grass : for he flourisheth as a flower of the field.

16 For as soon as the wind goeth over it, it is gone : and the place thereof shall know it no more.

17 But the merciful goodness of the Lord endureth for ever and ever upon them that fear him : and his righteousness upon children's children ;

13 But wíthin a whíle they forgát his p works : and wóuld not a-bíde his cöun-sel.

14 But lust camé úpón them ín the wilderness : and they ttempt-ed GóD in-the dê-sert.

15 And he gáve them their de-sire : and sent léanness wíth-ín into their soul.

16 They ángered Móses also ín the tents : and Aaron the saínt óf the LORD.

17 So the earth ópened, and swálow'd-up Dathan : and cövered the congrega-tion óf A-bí-ram.

18 And the fire was kindled ín their company : the fláme burnt úp the ungod-ly.

19 They máde a cálf in Horeb : and wórs hipped the mól-ten í-mage.

20 Thus they turn-ed their glory : into the similitude of a calf that eat-eth hay.

21 And they forgât GóD their Saviour : who had done so great things in E-gypt ;

22 Wondrous works in the land of Ham : and fearful things by the Rêd sea.

23 So he said, he would have destroyed them, had not Moses his chosen stood before him in the gap : to turn away his wrathful indignation, lest he should de-strôy them.

24 Yea, they thought scorn of that plea-sant land : and gave no cré-dence in-to his word ;

25 But murmured in their tents : and hearkened nôt un-to the voice of the Lord.

26 Then lift he up his hand a-against them ; to overthrow them in the wild-erness ;

27 To cast out their sêed among the nations : and to scat-ter them in the lands.

28 They joined themselves unto Bál-peor : and ate the of-ferings of the dead.

29 Thus they provoked him to anger with their own in-ventions : and the plâgne was great a-mông them.

30 Then stood up Phn-ees and prayed : and so the plâgne ceas-ed.

31 And that was counted unto him for righteousness : among all pos-téri-ties for e-ver-more.

32 They angered him also at the wa-ters of strife : so that he punished Mô-ses for their sakes ;

33 Because they pro-vôk-ed his spirit : so that he spâke unadvis-edly with his lips.

34 Neither destroy-ed they the heathen : as the Lord com-mand-ed them ;

35 But were min-gled-a-mông the heathen : and learn-ed their works.

36 Inasmuch that they worshipped their idols, which tûrned to their own de-cay : yea, they offered their sons and their daughters un-to dê-vils ;

37 And shed innocent blood, even the blood of their sôns and of their daughters : whom they offered unto the idols of Canaan ; and the land was defl-ed with blood.

38 Thus were they stâined with their own works : and went a whôring with their own in-ven-tions.

39 Therefore was the wrath of the Lord kindled-a-against his people : inasmuch that he abhórred his own in-hê-ritance.

40 And he gave them ôver in-to the hand of the heathen : and they that hâted them were lôrds o-ver them.

41 Their ênemies op-press-ed them : and hâd them in sub-jec-tion.

42 Many a time did he de-lî-ver them : but they rebelled against him with their own inventions, and were brougth down in their wick-edness.

43 Nevertheless, when he saw their ad-versity : he heard their com-plaint.

44 He thought upon his covenant, and pitied them, according unto the multitude of his mercies : yea, he made all those that led them away cap-tive-to pi-ty them.

45 Deliver us, O Lord our God, and gâther us from among the heathen : that we may give thanks unto thy holy Name, and mâke our boast of thy praise.

46 Blessed be the Lord God of Israel from ever-lâsting, and world without end : and let all the peo-ple say, A-men.

PSALM cvii. Confitemini Domino.

mf O GIVE thanks unto the LORD, for his is gracious : and his mercy endureth for ever.

2 Let them give thanks whom the LORD hath re-deemed : and delivered from the hand of the enemy ;

3 And gathered them out of the lands, from the east, and from the west : from the north, and from the south.

p 4 They went astray in the wilderness out of the way : and found no city to dwell in ;

5 Hungry and thirsty : their soul fainted in them.

† 6 So they cried unto the LORD in their trouble : and he delivered them from their dis-tress.

7 He led them forth by the right way : 2d Pt. that they might go to the city where they dwelt.

8 O that men would therefore praise f the LORD for his goodness : and declare the wonders that he doeth for the chil-dren of men !

9 For he satisfieth the emp-ty soul : and filleth the hungry soul with good-ness.

* 10 Such as sit in darkness, and in the shad-ow of death : being fast bound in mis-ery and iron ;

11 Because they rebelled against the words of the LORD : and lightly regarded the counsel of the most High-est ;

12 He also brought down their heart through heaviness : they fell down, and there was none to help them.

† 13 So when they cried unto the Lord in their trouble : he delivered them out of their dis-tress.

Pt. 14 For he brought them out of darkness, and out of the shadow of death : and brake their bonds in sun-der.

f 15 O that men would therefore praise the Lord for his goodness : and declare the wonders that he doeth for the chil-dren of men !

16 For he hath broken the gates of brass : and smitten the bars of iron in sun-der.

p * 17 Foolish men are plagued for their of-fence : and because of their wick-ed-ness.

18 Their soul abhorred all man-ner of meat : and they were even hard at death's door.

† 19 So when they cried unto the Lord in their trouble : he delivered them out of their dis-tress.

20 He sent his word, and heal-ed them : and they were saved from their de-struc-tion.

f 21 O that men would therefore praise the Lord for his goodness : and declare the wonders that he doeth for the chil-dren of men !

22 That they would offer unto him the sacrifice of thanks-giving : and tell out his works with glad-ness !

m * 23 They that go down to the sea in ships : and occupy their business in great wa-ters ;

24 These men see the works of the Lord : and his won-ders in the deep.

25 For at his word the stormy wind a-riseth : which lifteth up the waves there-of.

26 They are carried up to the heaven, and down again to the deep : their soul melteth away because of the trou-ble.

27 They reel to and fro, and stagger like a drunk-en man : and are at their wit's end.

† 28 So when they cry unto the Lord in their trouble : he delivereth them out of their dis-tress.

29 For he maketh the storm to cease : so that the waves there-of are still.

30 Then are they glad, because they are at rest : and so he bringeth them unto the haven where they would be.

31 O that men would therefore praise the Lord for his goodness : and declare the wonders that he doeth for the chil-dren of men !

32 That they would exalt him also in the congregation of the people : and praise him in the seat of the el-ders !

33 Who turneth the floods in-to-a-my wilderness : and drieth up the wa-ter-springs.

34 A fruitful land mak-eth-he barren : for the wickedness of them that dwell there-in.

35 Again, he maketh the wilderness a stand-ing water : and wa-ter-springs of a dry ground.

36 And there he set-teth-the hungry : that they may build them a ci-ty-to dwell in ;

37 That they may sow their land, and plant vineyards : to yield them fruits of in-crease.

38 He blesseth them, so that they multiply ex-ceedingly : and suffereth not their cat-tle to de-crease.

39 And again, when they are minished, and brought low : through oppression, through any plague, or trou-ble ;

40 Though he suffer them to be evil intréat-ed-through tyrants : and let them wander out of the way in the wil-derness ;

41 Yet helpeth he the poor out of misery : and maketh him households like a flock of sheep.

42 The righteous will consider this, and-re-joice : and the mouth of all wickedness shall be stop-ped.

43 Whoso is wise will pon-der-these things : and they shall understand the loving-kind-ness of the Lord.

f O GOD, my heart is ready, my heart is ready : I will sing and give praise with the best member that I have.

2 Awake, thou lute, and harp : I myself will awake right early.

3 I will give thanks unto thee, O Lord, among the people : I will sing praises unto thee among the nations.

p 4 For thy mercy is greater than the heavens : and thy truth reach-eth unto the clouds.

f 5 Set up thyself, O God, above the heavens : and thy glory above all the earth.

6 That thy beloved may be delivered : let thy right hand save them, and hear thou me.

mf 7 God hath spoken in his holiness : I will rejoice therefore, and divide Sichem, and mete out the valley of Sic-coth.

8 Gilead is mine, and Manasse is mine : Ephraim also is the strength of my head.

9 Judah is my law-giver, Meab is my wash-pot : over Edom will I cast out my shoe ; upon Philistia will I triumph.

10 Who will lead me into the strong city : and who will bring me in-to E-dom?

11 Hast not thou forsaken us, O God : and wilt not thou, O God, go forth with our hosts?

3 Lift up your hands in the sanc-tu-ary : and praise the Lord.

4 The Lord that made heaven and earth : give thee blessing out of Si-on.

PSALM CXXXV. Laudate Nomen.

f O PRAISE the Lord, laud ye the Name of the Lord : praise it, O ye ser-vants of the Lord ;

2 Ye that stand in the house of the Lord : in the courts of the house of our God.

3 O praise the Lord, for the Lord is gracious : O sing praises unto his Name, for it is love-ly.

mf 4 For why? the Lord hath chosen Jacob un-to-him-self : and Israel for his own pos-ses-sion.

5 For I know that the Lord is great : and that our Lord is above all gods.

6 Whatsoever the Lord pleased, that did he in heaven, and in earth : and in the sea, and in all deep pla-ces.

7 He bringeth forth the clouds from the ends of the world : and sendeth forth lightnings with the rain, bringing the winds out of his trea-sures.

f 8 He smote the first-born of Egypt : both of man and beast.

9 He hath sent tokens and wonders into the midst of thee, O thou land of Egypt : upon Pharaoh, and all his ser-vants.

10 He smote di-vers nations : and slew mighty kings ;

11 Sihon king of the Amorites, and Og the king of Basan : and all the king-doms of Cana-an ;

12 And gave their land to be an heritage : even an heritage unto Israel his peo-ple.

13 Thy Name, O Lord, endur-eth-for-ev-er : so doth thy memorial, O Lord, from one gener-ation to a-no-ther.

14 For the Lord will av-enge his people : and be gra-cious un-to-his ser-vants.

15 As for the images of the heathen, they are but sil-ver and gold : the work of men's hands.

16 They have mouths, and speak not : eyes have they, but they see not.

17 They have ears, and yet they hear not : neither is there any breath in their mouths.

18 They that make them are like unto them : and so are all they that put their trust in them.

19 Praise the Lord, ye house of Is-ra-el : f praise the Lord, ye house of Aa-ron.

20 Praise the Lord, ye house of Levi : ye that fear the Lord, praise the Lord.

21 Praised be the Lord out of Sion : who dwelleth at Je-ru-salem.

PSALM CXXXIX. Domine, probasti.

f Ö LORD, thou hast searched me out, and known me : thou knowest my down-sitting, and mine up-rising ; thou understandest my thoughts long before.

2 Thou art about my path, and about my bed : and spiest out all my ways.

3 For lo, there is not a word in my tongue : but thou, O Lord, knowest it all-together.

4 Thou hast fashioned me behind and before : and laid thine hand up-on me.

Pt. mf 5 Such knowledge is too wonderful and excellent for me : I cannot attain un-to it.

6 Whither shall I go then from thy Spirit : or whither shall I go then from thy presence ?

7 If I climb up into heaven, thou art there : if I go down to hell, thou art there also.

8 If I take the wings of the morning : and remain in the uttermost parts of the sea ;

9 Even there also shall thy hand lead me : and thy right hand shall hold me.

10 If I say, Peradventure the darkness shall cover me : then shall my night be turned to-day.

11 Yea, the darkness is no darkness with thee, but the night is as clear as the day : the darkness and light to thee are both a-like.

2d Pt. 12 For my reins are thine : thou hast covered me in my mother's womb, 13 I will give thanks unto thee, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made : marvellous are thy works, and that my soul know-eth right well.

14 My bones are not hid from thee : though I be made secretly, and fashioned beneath in the earth.

15 Thine eyes did see my substance, yet being-im-perfect : and in thy book were all my mem-bers writ-ten ;

16 Which day by day were fashioned : when as yet there was none of them.

17 How dear are thy counsels unto me, p O God : O how great is the sum of them !

18 If I tell them, they are more in number than the sand : when I wake up I am present with thee.

19 Wilt thou not slay the wicked, O God : depart from me, ye blood-thirsty men.

20 For they speak unrighteously against thee : and thine enemies take thy Name in vain.

21 Do not I hate them, O Lord, that hate thee : and am not I grieved with those that rise up against thee ?

22 Yea, I hate them right sore : even as though they were mine enemies.

23 Try me, O God, and seek the ground of my heart : prove me, and examine my thoughts.

24 Look well if there be any way of wickedness in me : and lead me in the way ever-lasting.

2 Who imagine mischief ín their hearts : and stir úp stríffe all-the dáy long.

3 They have sharpened their tóngues líke a serpent : adder's póison is únder their lips.

4 Keep me, O Lord, from the hánds óf the-un-godly : preserve me from the wicked men, who are púrposed to overthrow my gó-ings.

5 The proud have laid a snare for me, and spread a nêt abróad with cords : yêa, and set tráps in my way.

p 6 I said unto the LÔrd, Thóu art-my God : hear the vóice of my práy-ers, Ó Lord.

7 O Lord GÔd, thou stréngth of-my health : thou hast covered my hêad in the dáy of bát-tle.

10 Let hot burning coáls fall up-on-them : let them be cast into the fire, and into the pit, that they nêver rise up a-gain.

3 Great is the Lord, and marvellous, worthy to be praised : there is no end of his great-ness.

4 One generation shall praise thy works unto-another : and declare thy power.

5 As for me, I will be talking of thy worship : thy glory, thy praise, and wonderful works ;

6 So that men shall speak of the might of thy marvellous acts : and I will also tell of thy great-ness.

7 The memorial of thine abundant kindness shall be shewed : and men shall sing of thy righteousness.

8 The Lord is gracious, and merciful : long-suffering, and of great good-ness.

9 The Lord is loving unto every man : and his mercy is ever all his works.

10 All thy works praise thee, O Lord : and thy saints give thanks unto thee.

11 They shew the glory of thy kingdom : and talk of thy power ;

12 That thy power, thy glory, and mightiness of thy kingdom : might be known unto men.

13 Thy kingdom is an everlasting kingdom : and thy dominion endureth throughout all ages.

14 The Lord upholdeth all such as fall : and lifteth up all those that are down.

15 The eyes of all wait upon thee, O Lord : and thou givest them their meat in due season.

16 Thou openest thine hand : and fillest all things living with plenteousness.

PSALM xxxviii. Domine, ne in furore.

mf PUT me not to rebuke, O Lord, in thine anger : neither chasten me in thy heavy displeasure.

2 For thine arrows stick fast in me : and thy hand press-eth me sore.

pp 3 There is no health in my flesh, because of thy displeasure : neither is there any rest in my bones, by reason of my sin.

4 For my wickednesses are gone over my head : and are like a sore burden, too heavy for me to bear.

5 My wounds stink, and are corrupt : through my foolishness.

6 I am brought into so great trouble and misery : that I go mourning all the day long.

7 For my loins are filled with a sore disease : and there is no whole part in my body.

8 I am feeble, and sore smitten : I have roared for the very discomfortness of my heart.

p 9 Lord, thou knowest all my desire : and my groaning is not hid from thee.

10 My heart panteth, my strength hath failed me : and the sight of mine eyes is gone from me.

11 My lovers and my neighbours did stand looking upon my trouble : and my kinsmen stood afar off.

12 They also that sought after my life laid snares for me : and they that went about to do me evil talked of wickedness, and imagined deceit all the day long.

13 As for me, I was like a deaf man, and heard not : and as one that is dumb, who doth not open his mouth.

14 I became even as a man that hear-eth not : and in whose mouth are no reproofs.

15 For in thee, O Lord, have I put my trust : thou shalt answer for me, O Lord my God.

16 I have required that they, even mine enemies, should not triumph over me : for when my foot slipped, they rejoiced greatly against me.

17 And I, truly, am set in the plague : and my heaviness is over in my sight.

18 For I will confess my wickedness : and be sorry for my sin.

19 But mine enemies live, and are mighty : and they that hate me wrongfully are many in number.

20 They also that reward evil for good are against me : because I follow the thing that good is.

mf HĒAR my prayer, O Lord : and let my cry'ing come un-to thee.

2 Hide not thy face from me in the time of my trouble : incline thine ear unto me when I call ; O hēar me, and that right soon.

pp 3 For my days are consumed away like smoke : and my bones are burnt up as it were a fire-brand.

4 My heart is smitten down, and withered like grass : so that I forget to eat my bread.

5 For the voice of my groaning : my bones will scarce cleave to my flesh.

6 I am become like a pelican in the wilderness : and like an owl that is in the desert.

7 I have watched, and am even as it were a sparrow : that sitteth alone upon the house-top.

8 Mine enemies revile me all the day long : and they that are mad upon me are sworn to gether against me.

9 For I have eaten ashes as it were bread : and mingled my drink with weep'ing ;

10 And that because of thine indignation and wrath : for thou hast taken me up, and cast me down.

11 My days are gone like a shadow : and I am withered like grass.

p 12 But, thou, O Lord, shalt endure for ever : and thy remembrance throughout all ge-ne-rā-tions.

13 Thou shalt arise, and have mercy upon Sion : for it is time that thou have mercy upon her, yea, the time is come.

14 And why ? thy servants think upon her stones : and it pitieth them to see her in the dust.

15 The heathen shall fear thy Name, O Lord : and all the kings of the earth thy Ma-jesty ;

16 When the Lord shall build up Sion : and when his glo-ry shall ap-pear ;

17 When he turneth him unto the prayer of the poor destitute : and despiseth not their de-sire.

18 This shall be written for those that come after : and the people which shall be born shall praise the Lord.

19 For he hath looked down from his sanc-tu-ary : out of the heaven did the Lord be-hold the earth ;

20 That he might hear the mournings of such as are in cap-tivity : and deliver the children ap-point-ed unto death ;

21 That they may declare the Name of the Lord in Sion : and his wor-ship at Je-ru-salem ;

22 When the people are gathered to-gether : and the king-doms also, to serve the Lord.

23 He brought down my strength in my journey : and short-ened my days.

24 But I said, O my God, take me not away in the midst of mine age : as for thy years, they endure throughout all ge-ne-rā-tions.

25 Thou, Lord, in the beginning hast laid the foundation of the earth : and the heavens are the work of thy hands.

26 They shall perish, but thou shalt endure : they all shall wax old as doth a garment ;

27 And as a vesture shalt thou change

4 For there is mercy with thee : therefore shalt thou be merciful.

pp 5 I look for the Lord ; my soul doth wait for him : in his word is my trust.

6 My soul fleeth unto the Lord : before the morning watch, I say, before the morning watch.

mf 7 O Israel, trust in the Lord, for with the Lord there is mercy ; and with him is plenteous redemption.

8 And he shall redeem Israel : from all his sins.

PSALM cxliiii.† Domine, exaudi.

p HEAR my prayer, O Lord, and consider my desire : hearken unto me for thy truth and righteousness' sake.

2 And enter not into judgment with thy servant : for in thy sight shall no man living be justified.

mf 3 For the enemy hath persecuted my soul ; he hath smitten my life down to the ground : he hath laid me in the darkness, as the men that have been long dead.

4 Therefore is my spirit vexed within me : and my heart within me is desolate.

5 Yet do I remember the time past ; I muse upon all thy works : yea, I exercise myself in the works of thy hands.

6 I stretch forth my hands unto thee : my soul gaspeth un- to thee as a thirsty land.

7 Hear me, O Lord, and that soon, for my spirit waxeth faint : hide not thy face from me, lest I be like unto them that go down into the pit.

8 O let me hear thy loving-kindness betimes in the morning, for in thee is my trust : shew thou me the way that I should walk in, for I lift up my soul unto thee.

9 Deliver me, O Lord, from mine enemies : for I flee un- to thee to hide me.

10 Teach me to do the thing that pleaseth thee, for thou art my God : let thy loving Spirit lead me forth in- to the land of righteousness.

11 Quicken me, O Lord, for thy Name's sake : and for thy righteousness' sake bring my soul out of trouble.

p SÄVE ' mē, O God : for the waters are come in, even unto my soul.

2 I stick fast in the deep mire, where no ground is : I am come into deep waters, so that the floods run o-ver me.

3 I am weary of crying ; my throat is dry : my sight faileth me for waiting so long up-on my God.

4 They that hate me without a cause are more than the hairs of-my head : they that are mine enemies, and would destroy me guilt-less, are mighty.

mf 5 I paid them the things that I never took : God, thou knowest my simpleness, and my faults are not hid from thee.

6 Let not them that trust in thee, O Lord God of hosts, be ashamed for my cause : let not those that seek thee be confounded through me, O Lord God of Is-ra-el.

7 And why ? for thy sake have I suffered re-proof : shame hath covered my face.

8 I am become a stranger un-to my brethren : even an alien unto my mother's chil-dren.

9 For the zeal of thine house hath even eat-en me : and the rebukes of them that rebuked thee are fal-len upon me.

10 I wept, and chastened myself with fasting : and that was turn-ed to my re-proof.

11 I put on sack-cloth also : and they jest-ed upon me.

12 They that sit in the gate speak against me : and the drunkards make songs up-on me.

p 13 But, Lord, I make my prayer unto thee : in an ac-cept-able time.

14 Hear me, O God, in the multitude of thy mercy : even in the truth of thy sal-vä-tion.

15 Take me out of the mire, that I sink not : O let me be delivered from them that hate me, and out of the deep wa-ters.

16 Let not the water-flood drown me, neither let the deep swal-low-me up : and let not the pit shut her mouth up-on me.

17 Hear me, O Lord, for thy loving-kindness is com-forta-ble : turn thee unto me according to the multitude of thy mer-cies.

18 And hide not thy face from thy servant, for I am-in trouble : O haste thee, and hear me.

19 Draw nigh unto my soul, and save it : O deliver me, because of mine e-ne-mies.

20 Thou hast known my reproof, mf my shame, and my dis-honour : mine adversaries are all in thy sight.

21 Thy rebuke hath broken my heart ; I am full of heaviness : I looked for some to have pity on me, but there was no man, neither found I a-ny-to com-fort me.

22 They gave me gall to eat : and when I was thirsty they gave me vin-egar to drink.

23 Let their table be made a snare to take themselves with-al : and let the things that should have been for their wealth be unto them an occä-sion of fall-ing.

24 Let their eyes be blinded, that they see not : and ever bow thou down their backs.

25 Pour out thine indignä-tion upon them : and let thy wrathful displea-sure take hold of them.

26 Let their häbitä-tion be void : and no man to dwell in their tents.

33 The humble shall consider thís, and be glad : seek ye áfter Gód, and your soul shall live.

34 For the Lórd héar-eth the poor : and despiseth nó his pri-son-ers.

35 Let héaven and earth praise him : the sêa, and áll that moveth there-in.

36 For God will save Sion, and build the cí-ties of Judah : that men may dwell there, and háve it ín pos-sés-sion.

37 The posterity also of his sêrvants shall inhé-rit it : and they that lóve his Náme shall dwell there-in.

No. I. 3.

dówn ín-to the pit : and I have been éven as a mán that hath nò strength.

4 Free among the dead, like unto them that are wóunded, and líe ín the grave : who are out of remembrance, and are cút away from thy hand.

5 Thou hast laid me ín the lów-est pit : in a pláçe of dárk-ness, and in the deep.

6 Thine indignation líeth hárd up-on-me : and thou hast véxed mé with áll thy storms.

7 Thou hast put away mine acquaintance frá from-me : and made me to bé abhór-red óf them.

8 I ám so fást in prison : that I cán-not gét forth.

9 My sight fáileth for vé-ry trouble : 21 Pt Lord, I have called daily upon thee, I have stretched fórth my hánds un-to thee.

10 Dost thou shew wónders among the mf dead : or shall the dead rise úp agáín, and praise thee?

11 Shall thy loving-kindness be shéwed ín the grave : or thy fáithfulness ín de-struc-tion?

12 Shall thy wondrous wórks be known ín the dark : and thy righteoussness in the land where áll things are for-gót-ten?

14 Lord, why abhórrest thóu my soul : p and hidest thóu thy fáce from me?

PSALM lxxxviii. Domine Deus.

mf LORD GOD of my salvation, I have cried dáy and níght be-fóre thee : O let my prayer enter into thy presence, incline thine éar ún-to-my cáll-ing.

p 2 For my sóul is fúll of trouble : and my lífe dráweth nígh un-to hell.

3 I am counted as one of them that go

15 I am in misery, and like unto him that is at the point to die : even from my youth up thy terrors have I suffered with a trou-bled mind.

16 Thy wrathful displeasure goeth o-ver me : and the fear of thee hath undone me.

17 They came round about me day-like water : and compassed me together on every side.

18 My lovers and friends hast thou put away from me : and hid mine acquaintance out of my sight.

EASTER-DAY

¶ At Morning Prayer, instead of the Psalm, O come let us sing, &c. these Anthems shall be sung or said.

No. I. 1.

No. II. 1.

No. III. 1.

f CHRIST our pas-sover is sacrific-ed for us : therefore let us keep the feast ;

mf Not with the old leaven, nor with the leaven of mal-ice and wickedness ; but with the unleavened bread of sincer-i-ty and truth.

[1 Cor. v. 7.]

f CHRIST being raised from the dead do-eth no more : death hath no more domn-ion o-ver him.

p For in that he died, he died unto sin once : but in that he liveth, he liv-eth un-to God.

Like-wise reckon ye also yourselves to be dead indeed unto sin : but alive unto God through Je-sus Christ our Lord.

[Rom. vi. 9.]

CHRIST is risen from the dead : and be-come the first-fruits of them that slept.

For since by man came death : by man came also the resurrec-tion of the dead.

For as in Adam all die : even so in Christ shall all be made a-live. [1 Cor. xv. 20.]

Glo-ry be to the Fa-ther, and to the Son : and to the Ho-ly Ghost ;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be : world without end.

PSALM ii. Quare fremuerunt gentes?

WHY do the heathen so furiously rage together : and why do the people imagine a vain thing ?

2 The kings of the earth stand up, and the rulers take counsel together : against the Lord, and against his Anointed.

3 Let us break their bonds a-sunder : and cast away their cords from us.

f 4 He that dwelleth in heaven shall laugh them to scorn : the Lord shall have them in derision.

5 Then shall he speak unto them in his wrath : and vex them in his sore displeasure.

6 Yet have I set my King : upon my holy hill of Sion.

p 7 I will preach the law, whereof the Lord hath said unto me : Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee.

8 Desire of me, and I shall give thee the heathen for thine inheritance : and the utmost parts of the earth for thy possession.

9 Thou shalt bruise them with a rod of iron : and break them in pieces like a pot-ter's vessel.

10 Be wise now therefore, O ye kings : mf be learned, ye that are judges of the earth.

11 Serve the Lord in fear : and rejoice unto him with reverence.

12 Kiss the Son, lest he be angry, and so ye perish from the right way : if his wrath be kindled, (yea, but a little,) blessed are all they that put their trust in him.

No. III. 3.

PSALM lvii. Miserere mei, Deus.

BEMERCIFUL unto me, O God, be merciful unto me, for my soul trusteth in thee : and under the shadow of thy wings shall be my refuge, until this tyrannye be over-past.

2 I will call unto the most high God : even unto the God that shall perform the cause which I have in hand.

3 Hê shall sênd from heaven : and save me from the reprôof of hfm that-would eat me up.

mf 4 God shall send fôrth his mër-cy-and truth : my sôul is among li-ons.

5 And I lie even among the children of 2d Pt. mên, that are sêt on fire : whose teeth are spears and ârrows, and their tóngue a shârp sword.

No. I. 3.

No. II. 3.

No. III. 3.*

ff 6 Set up thyself, O Gôd, abôve the heavens : and thy glôry abôve all the-earth.

mf 7 They have laid a net for my feet, and prêssed dôn my sôul : they have digged a pit before me, and are fallen into the mfdst of it them-selves.

ff 8 My heart is fixed, O Gôd, my héart is fixed : I will sing, and give praise.

9 Awake up, my glory ; awâke, lûte and harp : I myself will awâke right eâr-ly.

mf 10 I will give thanks unto thee, O Lôrd, among the people : and I will sing unto thée among the nâ-tions.

11 For the greatness of thy mercy réacheth ún-to-the heavens : and thy truth ún-to-the-clouds.

ff 12 Set up thyself, O Gôd, abôve the heavens : and thy glôry abôve all the-earth.

PSALM cxi. Confitebor tibi.

mf I WILL give thanks unto the Lôrd with my whôle heart : secretly among the faithful, and in the cón-gre-gâ-tion.

2 The wôrks of the Lôrd are great :

sought out of all thê m that have plea-sure therein.

3 His work is worthy to be praised, and hâd in honour : and his righteousness endûr-eth-for ë-ver.

4 The merciful and gracious Lord hath sô done his mâr-vellous works : that they ôught to be hâd in remêm-brance.

5 He hath given mêat unto thém that fear-him : he shall êver be mindful ôf his cö-venant.

6 He hath shewed his péople the pöwer of his works : that he may give them the hêritage ôf the hêa-then.

7 The works of his hânds are vé-ri-ty-and judgment : all his commând-ments are true.

8 They stand fâst for é-ver-and ever : and are dône in truth and ë-quity.

9 He sent redêption ún-to-his people : he hath commanded his covenant for ever ; hól-y and rö-ver-end is his Name.

10 The fear of the Lôrd is the begîning-of wisdom : a good understanding have all they that do thereafter ; the praise of it endûr-eth-for ë-ver.

PSALM CXVIII. Confitemini Domino.

f GIVE thanks unto the LORD, for hé is gracious : because his mércy endúr-eth-for é-ver.

2 Let Israel now conféss, that hé is gracious : and that his mércy endúr-eth-for é-ver.

3 Let the house of Áaron nów con-fess : that his mércy endúr-eth-for é-ver.

4 Yea, let them now that féar the LORD con-fess : that his mércy endúr-eth-for é-ver.

p 5 I called upon the LORD in trouble : and the LORD hérd mé at-lárgé.

6 The LORD is on my side : I will not fear what mán dó-eth unto me.

7 The LORD taketh my párt with thém that help-me : therefore shall I see my desfre upón mine é-nemies.

8 It is bétter to trust in-the LORD : than to pút any cón-fidence in man.

9 It is bétter to trust in-the LORD : than to put any cónfidence in prin-ces.

10 All nations compassed me róund a-bout : but in the Name of the LORD wíl I destróy them.

11 They kept me in on every side, they kept me in, I sáy, on éve-ry side : but in the Name of the LORD wíl I destróy them.

12 They came about me like bees, and are extinct even as the fire among the thorns : for in the Name of the LORD I will destróy them.

13 Thou hast thrust sóre at me, that I might fall : bút the LORD was my help.

mf 14 The LORD is my stréngth, and-my song : and is become my salvá-tion.

15 The voice of joy and health is in the dwéllings of the righteous : the right hand of the LORD bringeth mígh-ty things to-pass.

16 The right hand of the LORD háth the-pre-eminence : the right hand of the LORD bringeth mígh-ty things to-pass.

17 I sháll not dse, but live : and déclare the works of-the LORD.

18 The LORD hath chástened and correct-ed me : but he hath not gíven me ó-ver unto death.

19 Ópen me the gátes of righteousness : f that I may go into thém, and give thánks un-to-the-LORD.

20 This is the gáte of-the LORD : the the righteous shall én-ter in-to it.

21 I will thánk thee, for thóu hast heard-me : and art become my salvá-tion.

22 The same stóne which the búild-ers-re-fused : is become the héad-stone in the cór-ner.

23 This is the LORD's doing : and it is már-vellous in our eyes.

24 This is the dáy which the LORD hath made : wé will rejoice and-be glád-in it.

25 Hélp me nów, O LORD : O LORD, send us nów pros-pé-ri-ty.

26 Blessed be he that cómeth in the Náme of-the LORD : we have wished you good luck, ye that áre of the hóuse of-the LORD.

PSALM viii. Domine, Dominus noster

f O LORD our Governour, how excellent is thy N^ame in all the world : thou that hast s^et thy gl^o-ry ab^ove the heavens !

2 Out of the mouth of very babes and sucklings hast thou ordained strength, because of thine enemies : that thou mightest still the enemy, and the aveng-er.

mf 3 For I will consider thy heavens, even the w^orks of thy fingers : the moon and the s^tars, which thou hast ordain-ed.

4 What is m^an, that thou art mⁱnd-ful of him : and the s^on of man, that thou vi-sitest him ?

5 Thou madest him l^ower than the angels : to cr^own him with gl^o-ry and w^or-ship.

6 Thou makest him to have dominion of the w^orks of thy hands : and thou hast put all things in sub^je-c-tion under his feet ;

7 All s^hee-p and oxen : y^ea, and the beasts of the field ;

8 The fowls of the air, and the fishes of the sea : and whatsoever walketh through the paths of the seas.

9 O LORD our Governour : how excellent f is thy N^ame in all the world !

PSALM xv. Domine, quis habitabit ?

LORD, who shall dwell in thy f t^a-ber-nacle : or who shall r^est upon thy h^oly hill ?

2 Even he, that leadeth an un-corrupt mf life : and doeth the thing which is right, and speaketh the truth from his heart.

3 He that hath used no deceit in his tongue, nor done evil t^o his neighbour : and hath not sl^an-der'd his neigh-bour.

4 He that setteth not by himself, but is l^owly in his own eyes : and maketh much of them that fear the Lord.

5 He that sweareth unto his neighbour, and disappoint-eth him not : though it w^ere to his own hin-drance.

6 He that hath not given his m^on^ey upon usury : nor taken reward against the in-nocent.

PSALM XXI. Domine, in virtute tua.

mf THE King shall rejoice in thy strength, O Lord : exceeding glad shall he be of thy sal-vä-tion.

2 Thou hast given him his heart's de-sire : and hast not denied him the request of his lips.

3 For thou shalt prevent him with the bless-ings of goodness : and shalt set a crown of pure gold up-on his head.

4 He asked life of thee, and thou gavest him a long life : even for ever-and ë-ver.

5 His honour is great in thy sal-vation :
glory and great worship shalt thou lay up-on him.

6 For thou shalt give him everlasting-ful-licity : and make him glad with the joy of thy cöunte-nance.

7 And why ? because the King putteth his trust in the Lord : and in the mercy of the most Highest he shall not miscär-ry.

8 All thine enemies shall feel thy hand :
thy right hand shall find out them that häte thee.

9 Thou shalt make them like a fiery öven in time of thy wrath : the Lord shall destroy them in his displeasure, and the fire shall consume them.

10 Their fruit shalt thou root out of the earth : and their seed from among the chil-dren of men.

11 For they intended mis-chief-against thee : and imagined such a device
as they are not ä-ble to-per-form.

12 Therefore shalt thou put them to fight : and the strings of thy bow shalt thou make ready against the face of them.

power.

PSALM xxiv. Domini est terra.

mf THE earth is the Lord's, and all that there-in is : the compass of the world, and they that dwell there-in.

2 For he hath founded it upon the seas : and prepar-ed-it upon the-floods.

p 3 Who shall ascend into the hill of the Lord : or who shall rise up in his ho-ly place ?

mf 4 Even he that hath clean hands, and a pure heart : and that hath not lift up his mind unto vanity, nor sworn to deceive his neigh-bour.

5 He shall receive the blessing from the Lord : and righteousness from the God of his sal-va-tion.

6 This is the generation of them that seek him : even of them that seek thy face, O Ja-cob.

f 7 Lift up your heads, O ye gates, and be ye lift up, ye everlast-ing doors : and the King of glo-ry shall come in.

mf 8 Who is the King of glory : it is the Lord strong and mighty, even the Lord mighty in bat-tle.

f 9 Lift up your heads, O ye gates, and be ye lift up, ye everlast-ing doors : and the King of glo-ry shall come in.

10 Who is the King of glory : even the Lord of hosts, he is the King of glo-ry.

PSALM xlvii. Omnes gentes, laudate.

O CLAP your hands together, all ye people : O sing unto God with the voice of melody.

2 For the Lord is high, and to be feared : he is the great King upon all the earth.

3 He shall subdue the people under us : and the nations under our feet.

4 He shall choose out an heritage for us : even the worship of Jacob, whom he lov-ed.

5 God is gone up with a merry noise : and the Lord with the sound of the trumpet.

6 O sing praises, sing praises unto our God : O sing praises, sing praises unto our King.

7 For God is the King of all the earth : sing ye praises with understanding.

8 God reigneth over the heathen : God sitteth upon his holy seat.

3 I will give thanks unto thee, O Lord, among the people : I will sing praises unto thee among the nations.

p 4 For thy mercy is greater than the heavens : and thy truth reach-eth unto the clouds.

f 5 Set up thyself, O God, above the heavens : and thy glory above all the earth.

6 That thy beloved may be delivered : let thy right hand save them, and hear thou me.

7 God hath spoken in his holiness : mf will rejoice therefore, and divide Sichem, and mete out the valley of Succoth.

8 Gilead is mine, and Manasse is mine : Ephraim also is the strength of my head.

9 Judah is my law-giver, Meab is my wash-pot : over Edom will I cast out my shoe ; upon Philistia will I triumph.

10 Who will lead me into the strong city : and who will bring me into Edom ?

11 Hast not thou forsaken us, O God : and wilt not thou, O God, go forth with our hosts ?

PSALM xlviij. Magnus Dominus.

mf GREAT is the Lord, and highly to be praised : in the city of our God, even upon his holy hill.

2 The hill of Zion is a fair place, and the joy of the whole earth : upon the north-side lieth the city of the great King ; God is well known in her palaces as a sure refuge.

p 3 For lo, the kings of the earth : are gathered, and gone by together.

4 They marvelled to see such things : they were astonished, and suddenly cast down.

5 Fear came there upon them, and sorrow : as upon a woman in her travail.

6 Thou shalt break the ships of the sea : through the east-wind.

7 Like as we have heard, so have we seen in the city of the Lord of hosts, in the city of our God : God upholdeth the same for ever.

mf 8 We wait for thy loving-kindness, O God : in the midst of thy temple.

9 O God, according to thy Name, so is thy praise unto the world's end : thy right hand is full of righteousness.

10 Let the mount Zion rejoice, and the daughter of Jerusalem be glad : because of thy judgments.

f 11 Walk about Zion, and go round about her : and tell the towers thereof. 12 Mark well her bulwarks, set up her houses : that ye may tell them that come after.

13 For this God is our God for ever and ever : he shall be our guide unto death.

PSALM lxviii. Eurycat Deus.

mf LET God arise, and let his enemies be scattered : let them also that hate him flee before him.

2 Like as the smoke vanisheth, so shalt thou drive them away : and like as wax melteth at the fire, so let the ungodly perish at the presence of God.

3 But let the righteous be glad and rejoice before God : let them also be merry and joyful.

4 O sing unto God, and sing praises unto his Name : magnify him that rideth upon the heavens, as it were upon an horse ; praise him in his Name JAH, and rejoice before him.

5 He is a Father of the fatherless, and defendeth the cause of the widows : even God in his holy habitation.

6 He is the God that maketh men to be of one mind in an house, and bringeth the prisoners out of captivity : but letteth the rûnagates continue in scarceness.

7 O God, when thou wentest forth before the people : when thou wentest through the wilderness,

8 The earth shook, and the heavens dropped at the presence of God : even as Sinai also was moved at the presence of God, who is the God of Israel.

9 Thou, O God, sentest a gracious rain upon thine inheritance : and refreshedst it when it was weary.

10 Thy congregation shall dwell there-in : for thou, O God, hast of thy goodness prepared for the poor.

11 The Lord gave the word : great was the company of the preachers.

12 Kings with their armies did flee, and were discomfited : and they of the house hold divided the spoil.

13 Though ye have lien among the pots, yet shall ye be as the wings of a dove : that is covered with silver wings, and her feathers like gold.

14 When the Almighty scattered kings for their sake : then were they as white as snow in Säl-mon.

15 As the hill of Basan, so is God's hill : even an high hill, as the hill of Bä-san.

16 Why hop ye so, ye high hills? this is God's hill, in the which it pleaseth him to dwell : yea, the Lord will abide in it for ever.

f 17 The chariots of God are twenty thousand, even thousands of angels : and the Lord is among them, as in the holy place of Si-nai.

18 Thou art gone up on high, thou hast led captivity captive, and received gifts for men : yea, even for thine enemies, that the Lord God might dwell among them.

19 Praised be the Lord daily : even the God who helpeth us, and poureth his benefits upon us.

20 He is our God, even the God of whom cometh salvation : God is the Lord, by whom we escape death.

21 God shall wound the head of his enemies : and the hairy scalp of such a one as goeth on still in his wickedness.

22 The Lord hath said, I will bring my people again, as I did from Basan : mine own will I bring again, as I did sometime from the deep of the sea.

2d Pt. 23 That thy foot may be dipped in the blood of thine enemies : and that the tongue of thy dogs may be red through the same.

f 24 It is well seen, O God, how thou goest : how thou, my God and King, goest in the sanc-tua-ry.

25 The singers go before, the minstrels follow after : in the midst are the damsels playing with the tim-brels.

26 Give thanks, O Israel, unto God the Lord in the con-gre-gations : from the ground of the heart.

27 There is little Benjamin their ruler, and the princes of Ju-dah their counsel : the princes of Zabulon, and the princes of Neph-thali.

28 Thy God hath sent forth strength for thee : establish the thing, O God, that thou hast wrought in us, 29 For thy temple's sake at Jeru-sa-lem : so shall kings bring presents unto thee.

30 When the company of the spear-men, and multitude of the mighty are scattered abroad among the beasts of the people, so that they humbly bring pieces of silver : and when he hath scattered the people that delight in war ;

31 Then shall the princes come out of Egypt : the Mo-ri-ans' land shall soon stretch out her hands unto God.

32 Sing unto God, O ye kingdoms of the earth : O sing praises unto the Lord ;

33 Who sitteth in the heavens over all from the beginning : lo, he doth send out his voice, yea, and that a mighty voice.

34 Ascribe ye the power to God over Is-ra-el : his worship, and strength is in the clouds.

f PRAISE the ' LORD, Ó my soul : O Lord my God, thou art become exceeding glorious ; thou art clothed with má-jesty and-hó-nour.

2 Thou deckest thyself with light as it were with a garment : and spreadest out the heavens like a cur-tain.

3 Who layeth the beams of his chambers in the waters : and maketh the clouds his chariot, and walketh upon the wings of the wind.

4 He maketh his an-gels spirits : and his mi-nisters a flam-ing fire.

mf 5 He laid the foundations of the earth : that it never should move at any time.

6 Thou coveredst it with the deep like as with a garment : the waters stand in the hills.

7 At thy rebúke they flee : at the voice of thy thun-der they are afraid.

8 They go up as high as the hills, and down to the vá-l-leys-be-neath : even unto the place which thou hast appoint-ed for them.

9 Thou hast set them their bounds which they shall not pass : neither turn again to co-ver the earth.

p 10 He sendeth the springs in-to-the rivers : which run a-mong the-hills.

11 All beasts of the field drink there-of : and the wild ass-es quench their thirst.

12 Beside them shall the fowls of the air háve their há-bi-tation : and sing among the bránch-es.

13 He wátereth the hills from-a-bove : the earth is filled with the fruit of thy works.

14 He bringeth forth grass for the cattle : and green herb for the ser-vice of men ;

17 Wherein the birds make their nests : and the fir-trees are a dwell-ing for the stork.

18 The high hills are a refuge for the wild goats : and so are the stony rocks for the cö-nies.

19 He appointed the moon for cer-tain p seasons : and the sun know-eth his go-ing down.

20 Thou makest darkness that it may be night : wherein all the beasts of the fo-rest do-move.

21 The lions roaring af-ter their prey : dô seek their meat from God.

22 The sun ariseth, and they get them away to-gether : and lay them down in their dens.

23 Man goeth forth to his wôrk, and to his labour : ûntil the e-vening.

mf 24 O Lord, how mânifold are thy works : in wisdom hast thou made them all ; the êarth is full of thy rich-es.

25 So is the grêat and wîde sea also : wherein are things creeping innûmerable, both smâll and grêat beasts.

26 There go the ships, and thêre is that

Levi-a-than : whom thou hast mâde to tãke his pas-time therein.

27 Thêse wait all upon thee : that thou mayest give them mêat in dîe sêa-son.

28 When thou givest it thê m they gâ-ther it : and when thou openest thy hãnd they are fill-ed with-good.

29 When thou hîdest thy fáce they are troubled : when thou takest away their breath they die, and are túrned agãin to their dust.

30 When thou lettest thy breath go fôrth they shall-be made : and thou shalt renêw the fáce ôf the-êarth.

f 31 The glorious Majesty of the Lórd shall endure for ever ; the Lórd shall rejoice in his works.

32 The earth shall trêmbles at the lóok of him : if he do but tóuch the hîlls, they shall smoke.

33 I will sing unto the Lórd as lóng as I live : I will praise my Góð while I háve my bê-ing.

34 And sô shall my wórd please-him : my jôy shall bê in the-Lórd.

35 As for sinners, they shall be consumed out of the earth, and the ungodly shall come to-an end : praise thou the Lord, O my sôul, praise the-Lórd.

PSALM cxlv. Exaltabo te, Deus.

f I WILL magnify thêe, O Góð, my King : and I will praise thy Nãme for e-ve-r-and e-ve-r.

2 Every dây will I give thãnks unto thee : and praise thy Nãme for e-ve-r-and e-ve-r.

3 Great is the Lord, and marvellous, wóthy tó be praised : thêre is no ênd of his grêat-ness.

4 One generation shall praise thy wórk un-to-a-nother : and déclare thy pô-er.

5 As for me, I will be tãlking ôf thy worship : thy glôry, thy praise, and won-drous works ;

6 So that men shall speak of the might of thy mar-vellous acts : and I will also téll of thy grêatness.

7 The memorial of thine abundant kîndness shall be shewed : and mên shall sing of thy right-eousness.

8 The Lórd is grã-cious, and merciful : p lóng-suffering, and of grêat góod-ness.

9 The Lord is lôving unto e-ve-ry man : and his mÛcy is o-ver all his works.

10 All thy wórk praise thee, O Lord : f and thy sãints give thãnks un-to-thee.

11 They shew the glôry ôf thy kingdom : and tãlk of thy pô-er ;

12 That thy power, thy glory, and mightiness ôf thy kingdom : might be known un-to-men.

No. III. 2.

13 Thy kingdom is an everlast-ing kingdom : and thy dominion endureth throughout all a-ges.

p 14 The Lord upholdeth all such as fall : and lifteth up all those that are down.

15 The eyes of all wait upon thee, O Lord : and thou givest them their meat in due sea-son.

16 Thou openest thine hand : and fillest all things liv-ing-with plen-tiousness.

17 The Lord is righteous in all his ways : and holy-in all his works.

18 The Lord is nigh unto all them that call up-on-him : yea, all such as call upon him faith-fully.

19 He will fulfil the desire of them that fear-him : he also will hear their cry, and-will help them.

20 The Lord preserveth all them that love-him : but scattereth abroad all the ungod-ly.

mf O LORD our Governour : how excellent is thy Name in all-the world!

[Psalm viii. 1.]

Lord, what is man, that thou hast such respect unto him : or the son of man, that thou so re-gard-est him? [Psalm cxliv. 3.]

The merciful and gracious Lord hath so done his mar-vellous works : that they ought to be had in remem-brance.

[Psalm cxi. 4.]

O that men would therefore praise the Lord for-his goodness : and declare the wonders that he doeth for the chil-dren of-men ! [Psalm cvii. 21.]

O hold thou up her goings in thy paths : that her foot-steps slip not. [Psalm xvii. 5.]

Grant the Queen a long life : and make her glád with the joy of thy cöunten-ance. [Psalm lxi. 6 & xxi. 6.]

Let her dwell before thee for ever : O prepare thy loving mercy and faithfulness, that they may preserve her. [Psalm lxi. 7.]

In her time let the right-eous flourish : and let peace be in all our bör-ders. [Psalm lxxii. 7 & cxlvii. 14.]

As for her enemies, clothe them with shame : but upon herself let her crown flou-rish. [Psalm cxxxii. 19.]

Blessed be the Lord God, even the God of Is-ra-el : which öny do-eth won-drous things. [Psalm lxxii. 18.]

And blessed be the Name of his Mä-jesty for ever : and all the earth shall be filled with his Mä-jesty. A-men, A-men. [Ver. 19.]

Glory be to the Fä-ther, and to the Son : and to the Ho-ly Ghost ;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ö-ver shall be : wörld with-öut end A-men.

PSALM XX. Exaudi te Dominus.

THE Lord hear thee in the day of trouble : the Name of the God of Ja-cob defend thee ;

2 Send thee help from the sanc-tu-ary : and strengthen thee out of Si-on ;

3 Remember all thy offerings : and accept thy burnt-säcri-fice ;

4 Grant thee thy heart's de-sire : and fulfil all thy mind.

5 We will rejoice in thy salvation, and triumph in the Name of the Lord our God : the Lord perform all thy petitions.

6 Now know I, that the Lord helpeth his Anointed, and will hear him from his holy heaven : even with the wholesome strength of his right hand.

7 Some put their trust in chäriots, and some in horses : but we will remember the Name of the Lord our God.

8 They are brought down, and fallen : but we are risen, and stand up-right.

9 Save, Lord, and hear us, O King of heaven : when we call up-on thee.

PSALM XXI. Domine, in virtute tua.

THE King shall rejoice in thy strength, O Lord : exceeding glad shall he be of thy sal-vä-tion.

2 Thou hast given him his heart's de-sire : and hast not denied him the request of his lips.

3 For thou shalt prevent him with the blessings of goodness : and shalt set a crown of pure gold up-on his head.

4 He asked life of thee, and thou gavest him a long life : even for ö-ver-and-ö-ver.

5 His honour is gréat in thy sal-vation :
glo-ry and great wórship shalt thou láy up-ón him.

6 For thou shalt gíve him everlásting-fe-licity : and make him glád with the jóy of thy còunte-nance.

7 And why? because the Kíng putteth his trúst in the Lord : and in the mercy of the most Híghest he sháll not miscárry.

f 8 All thine é-nemies shall féel thy hand :
thy right hand shall fínd out thém that háte thee.

9 Thou shalt make them like a fiery óven in tíme of thy wrath : the Lord shall destroy them in his displéasure, and the fire shall consume them.

10 Their frúit shalt thou root óut of the earth : and their sêed from among the chil-dren of men.

11 For they inténded mís-chief-against thee : and imagined such a device
as they áre not á-ble tó-per-form.

12 Thêrefore shalt thou pút them tó flight : and the strings of thy bow shalt thou make réady agáinst the fáce of thém.

13 Be thou exalted, Lórd, in thine ówn strength : sò will we síng, and praise thy power.

PSALM CI. Misericordiam et iudicium.

mf MY song shall bê of mér-cy and judgment : unto thêe, O Lórd, will I sing.

2 O let me háve ún-der-standing : ín the wáy of god-li-ness.

3 Whén wilt thou còme unto me : I will wálk in my hóuse with a per-fect heart.

4 I will take no wicked thing in hand ;
I háte the síns of un-faithfulness : there shall nò such cleáve un-to me.

5 A froward heart shall depárt fróm me : I will not knòw a wick-ed pèr-son.

6 Whoso prívily slán-dereth his neighbour : hím will I de-stry.

7 Whoso hath also a proud lóok and hígh stomach : I wíll not suf-fer him.

8 Mine eyes look upon such as áre faithful ín the land : thát thêy may dwell with me.

9 Whoso léadeth a gód-ly life : hé shall bê my sêr-vant.

10 There shall no deceitful pèrson dwell in my hóuse : he that telletH lies shall not tár-ry in my sight.

11 I shall soon destroy all the un-gódly that áre ín the land : that I may root out all wicked dōers from the cí-ty of the

where it is set in G. On the contrary the harmonies, of which there are two to this melody, in Tallis' Service, as first printed by Barnard, are different, and in five parts. It is nearly identical with what Clifford calls Mr. Adrien Batten's Tune.

* Called by Lowe, Clifford, and Playford, Canterbury Tune, and not found in Tallis' Service as given by Barnard. It is set to the Venite in Byrde's Preces, CC., Oxford, and is probably harmonized by him.
